Google

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at http://books.google.com/

PREFACE.

THE ten parts which this volume comprises have already been issued separately, and now appear in a collective form with a General Index. Since the publication of the various parts the information contained in them has been subjected to careful revision, and in some cases the tables have been entirely recast. It is possible, however, that some errors may still remain uncorrected; if there be any such which come under attention information concerning their nature and position would be gladly received.

The following pages contain chiefly matter in a tabular form, and should therefore be read in conjunction with the "Wealth and Progress of New South Wales," an annual publication, based for the most part on the figures found in this volume, and designed, as its title shows, to illustrate the resources of this Colony.

The above figures show the total number of licenses issued to the end of each year, and do not necessarily represent the number of watermen plying for hire.

The Marine Board of New South Wales was incorporated under the Navigation Act of 1871 (35 Vic. No. [illegible]), dated 29 November, however, has been in existence since that date. The Board consists of seven Wardens, four of whom are elected by the Trade and Shipping Guild of Sydney, and three are elected by the registered masters and shipowners of Port Jackson. For the position of an elective Warden it is necessary to possess a certificate of competency as master, and be a registered owner of not less than 250 tons of shipping. The elections take place triennially, the first election having been held for the year 1876. Previous to the passing of the Navigation Act of 1871 the Marine Board of New South Wales was established by Act 13 Vic. No. 17, and was constituted for Newcastle, but the Marine Board of New South Wales at first had jurisdiction over the whole of the coast of New South Wales, and the Boundaries of Districts were not defined. The Board is empowered to supervise all matters relating to [illegible] vessels, and to deal with the examination or cancellation of certificates of competency, and the framing of by-laws, the preservation of ports, harbours, rivers, &c. The [illegible] appointment, and removal of pilots, regulation of lighthouses, lights, and river marks, moorings, licenses to lighters, watermen's boats, ferries, and other boats in harbours, river steamers, &

Revenue. The revenue collected during 1893 was: Pilotage, £20,135; Removal Dues, £3,014; Harbour and Light Rates, &c., [illegible]; Fees, examinations, &c., £1,888. Total, £51,197.

Wollongong Harbour Trust. Under the authority of the Wollongong Harbour Trust Act, 1889 (53 Vic. No. [illegible]), the control, management, and conservancy of the port of Wollongong have been vested in twelve Commissioners, who act independently of all other authority [illegible] (for further particulars see Part X., "Miscellaneous").

Definition of a "Sufferance Wharf."—Any private wharf for which a sufferance has been granted in pursuance of the Customs Regulation Act (44 Vic. No. 19) for the landing of goods subject to the payment of Customs duties.

Wharfage and Tonnage Rates.—Under the provisions of the Wharfage and Tonnage Act of 1890 (54 Vic. No. 1) rates of this character are imposed on all vessels berthing at public or sufferance wharfs. A common tariff and scale of charges have been adopted. Tonnage Rates, amounting to one farthing per registered ton per diem, are levied on all vessels fully laden, and one halfpenny on those partly laden discharging at the wharfs; vessels not exceeding of 240 tons register and also are subject to a rate of one halfpenny per diem, under this limit a fixed rate is imposed. For steamers the rates are levied on the gross tonnage measurement. During a certain period, known as "Free Lay Days," vessels fully laden discharging are exempt from tonnage rates. The number of "Free Lay Days" is regulated by the tonnage of the vessel. Tonnage Rates.—In addition to these charges, all goods landed are subject to "Inward Wharfage Rates," and goods shipped to "Outward Rates," the latter being one-half the former. Goods arriving from Australasian Colonies or Pacific Islands landed at public wharfs and "Entered" for Transhipment are exempt from wharfage rates. In some cases the Government wharfs are leased to private companies, and the rent of the wharf is accepted in lieu of tonnage dues, all wharfage dues are collected as in the case of ordinary wharfs.

Revenue.—The total revenue collected for public wharfs during 1893 at the port of Sydney was £81,504, of which £22,879 were wharfage rates, £6,122 tonnage rates, and £24,363 rent, &c. At the port of Newcastle no wharfage rates are imposed, the tonnage rates collected at this port during 1893 amounted to £7,260, which, added to the total collections for the port of Sydney, gives a revenue for public wharfs of £61,124. (See also Note, Part II., "Commerce," page 251.)

Publications.—Pamphlets giving wharfage and tonnage rates are obtainable at the Government Printing Office.

Transhipments. Entries under this head contain only the cleared [illegible] of the packages. Particulars relating to value and quantity are not asked for, as by law it is unnecessary for masters to furnish [illegible] transhipment trade are dealt with at the port of Sydney, where the interstate transit trade with Queensland, New Zealand, and New Caledonia [illegible]

Transhipments from New South Wales entered as Imports by other Colonies. [illegible] these returns are also included in the Export returns of New South Wales [illegible] New South Wales. This practice causes a discrepancy between the returns of New South Wales and [illegible] Islands, and those compiled by the Imports and Customs Departments [illegible] transhipment trade is done between New South Wales and the other Australasian [illegible]

I EXPORTS BY SEA and OVERLAND at each PORT STATION of New South Wales, 1903.

o. 4.—GENERAL EXPORTS (Seaward and Overland) of New South Wales during 1893.

Articles for Consumption and Use on Voyage.—Articles, subject to duty, obtained for ships' requirements are ssified as Exports, and are considered part of the trade of New South Wales with the countries for which vessels are und. This fact should not be overlooked in some of the returns of trade. The outward trade, however, is exclusive of e goods as the information is not readily obtainable.

Like denominations for Imports and Exports.—As far as practicable a common basis is adopted; in some tances, however, articles of import are received under one denomination which appear in the export list under another; o in some cases goods are classified under general headings, while in the other instances specific headings are used; this egularity cannot be obviated.

Exports.—Articles of Export are valued at the port of shipment or inland station at which the goods leave the lony, and the quantities and values given are obtained from the bills of entry.

Adjustment of Returns.—The figures relating to domestic and foreign exports have been adjusted through the gold returns being amended. In those years where there is an excess of Export of gold coin over Imports of gold coin and gold bullion, the difference has been accepted as the domestic export; when opposite conditions obtain the whole of gold coin has been classed as other than domestic produce, no credit being taken for the manufacture of the gold into [illegible] Mint.

fiscations.—All goods seized by the Customs are submitted to auction sales held periodically ; and should the d be less than the amount of duty leviable the goods are withdrawn and destroyed.

ts at which Wharfage and Tonnage Rates are levied.—Both classes of rates are collected at Sydney bour, Woolgoolga, and Byron Bay. At Newcastle Tonnage Rates only are imposed, the Wharfage Rates being on the 1st June, 1882, under the authority of the 12th section of the "Wharfage and Tonnage Rates Act, 1880." collected at Newcastle are an item of Customs Revenue. The Wharfage and Tonnage Rates collected at Sydney n under the head of Miscellaneous Receipts of General Revenue. At no other port are rates of either class by the Government. During July, 1890, a considerable number of additional wharfs were proclaimed "public os fs"; no further action however has been taken.

Pilotage, Removal Dues, Harbour and Light Rates, and Wharfage and Tonnage Rates, see part I. g," pages 26 and 32.

Import Tariff.—The Tariff of late years has undergone many revisions. In 1884 the duties were slightly increased on Opium, Tobacco, and Cigars. Cigarettes and stearine were also added to the list of dutiable articles. During 1886 considerable additions were made to the specific list while the ad valorem duties after having been in abeyance since 1873 were re-established. In the following year, however, the tariff was considerably modified and the ad valorem duties again abolished. During December, 1891, many additions were made to the number of dutiable articles and ad valorem duties were again imposed.

Excise Tariff.—Prior to 1884 the only excise duty in force was on locally distilled spirits; in the year named, however, tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes manufactured in the Colony were added to the list, and in 1887 an excise tax of 3d. per gallon on beer was imposed, while the duty on distilled spirits was increased from 12s. to 14s. per gallon, proof.

Tax on Chinese.—The first Act [25 Vic. No. 3] to regulate and restrict the immigration of Chinese came into operation, February, 1862. Under its provisions a tax of £10 per head was imposed on Chinese immigrants to New South Wales, and Certificates of Naturalisation were disallowed; this statute was repealed in November, 1867, and till December, 1881, no restrictions were in force against Chinese entering the Colony. In that year, however, an Act [45 Vic. No. 11] was passed which imposed for a second time a tax of £10 per head. In 1888 this Act was repealed, and a more stringent one [52 Vic. No. 4] adopted. No Chinese unless those coming under exemption clauses of the Act, are now permitted to enter New South Wales either by sea or land without the payment of a tax of £100, while the granting of Certificates of Naturalisation has been suspended by the Act. Chinese naturalised in other colonies are not entitled to the right of British citizenship in New South Wales.

Tobacco Factory Licenses.—Under the provisions of the "Tobacco Act of 1884," "A and B" licenses for the manufacture of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, are issued. The cost of the "A" licenses ranges from £5 to £50, and the "B" licenses from £100 to £250. Persons taking out "A" licenses, who are small manufacturers, generally confine their transactions to the manufacture of tobacco and cigars, while those obtaining "B" licenses are proprietors of large factories where tobacco and cigarettes are chiefly manufactured. During 1893, 19 "A" licenses and 6 "B" licenses were in force.

Tobacco—Licenses to Sell.—An annual fee of 5s. is imposed on persons selling tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. The year to commence from the date of issue of license.

Inland Bonds and Stations.—No Import returns were collected at Brewarrina, Deniliquin, Cobar, Bourke, nnia, and Morpeth. At the three first-mentioned places goods were received under Bonded Certificates only, whilst ward trade of Bourke and Wilcannia was recorded at Wentworth, and that of Morpeth at Newcastle. The Bond at and the Station at Silverton were closed during April and October, 1893, respectively. Export returns were, however, ted at Brewarrina, Wilcannia, and Bourke.

Bonding Warehouses. Under the authority of the Customs Regulation Act of 1879 License Fees are collected on warehouses. For every warehouse with a storage capacity of 50 tons and under an annual fee of £5 is imposed, with an additional £1 for every 25 tons, the maximum fee, however, is fixed at £300. The amount of license fees collected during 1893 was £1,?2?. In addition, the warehousekeepers give security, by bond or otherwise, for goods warehoused. Under the provisions of the same Act, 405 persons were licensed during 1893 to carry bonded goods. No fee is attached to this, but the licensee is obliged to enter into a conditional bond.

VESSELS.—Fares by sailing vessels are in nearly every instance a matter of private arrangement n of the vessel and the intending passenger, but the number of such passengers is becoming smaller owing to the great decrease of the rates of steamer fares. Fares to London are, however, given as £35 d £20 to £25 second class, and to San Francisco as £30 first class and £15 to £20 second class.

PART III.—PUBLIC FINANCE.

1.—CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND ACCOUNT, for the year ending 31st December, 1893.

Accumulated Cash Deficiency.—The particulars given on this page clearly illustrate the position of the finances (Revenue Account) of the Colony to the 31st December, 1893. As the returns are compiled according to the cash transactions within the year, the excess of payments shown represents the actual accumulated cash deficiency at close of each year. The statement at bottom shows, in addition, the estimated amount necessary to meet outstanding liabilities contracted during 1893 and previous years, which, added to the "accumulated cash deficiency" on the 31st December, 1893, gives the total deficiency at the close of that year. The amount referred to, however (£1,109,085), does not include the deficit liquidated by Treasury Bills.

General Post Office New Street Resumption Account and Centennial Park Account In Suspense. On the 31st October, 1894, the debit balances of the General Post Office New Street Resumption Account, and Centennial Park Account, were respectively £335,613 and £198,201.

No. 2.—CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND.—Cash Deficiency or Surplus (Annual and Accumulated) for each Year since the Audit Act came into operation to 1893.

Deficiency Debt of 1886 and previous years—Account closed. On the 31st December, 1886, the Debit Balance of the Consolidated Revenue Account was £1,286,581 (see below), this amount is exclusive of the outstanding liabilities 1886 and previous years, which were met between January, 1887, and March, 1890. At the latter date the "Deficiency 1886 and previous years" was estimated to be £2,008,237. To cover this deficiency an Act was passed in September 18 giving authority to issue £2,000,000 Treasury Bills. The net amount issued was £2,002,884, and the Bills are being paid off by annual instalments of £150,000, the amount outstanding on the 31st December, 1893, was £1,902,884. No bills were issued outside the Treasury, the Trust Funds being available. During 1891 the account was finally closed, as the last payment was made in that year, the actual cash deficit on "Appropriations of 1886 and previous years" was £571,703.

No. 8.—Expenditure under EACH YEAR'S APPROPRIATIONS, 1884-93.

Difference between Expenditure under each "Annual Appropriation Act and Special Appropriations," and the amount of cash payments made during the calendar or fiscal year.

The expenditure under each "Annual Appropriation Act and Special Appropriations" includes all sums expended on account of the services included in the year's appropriations, whether the payments were made during the year expenditure was authorised, or in succeeding years. Hence the above statement must not be confused with those given in Tables Nos. 1 and 2, which give the actual cash payments during each calendar year, and the accumulated credit or debit balance of previous years brought forward. The particulars given below are chiefly useful for establishing a relation between the income of the year and the money appropriated for the services of that year; as, for instance, it will be observed that the appropriations for each year 1884-87 exceeded the income, in 1885 there was a surplus and so on. The expenditure under the "Appropriations of 1885" was less by £1,226,437 than the income of the year. The accounts showing the actual receipts and cash payments during that calendar year showed, however, a credit balance of £610,856 (Table No. 1) on 31st December. But at the same date, the accumulated deficiency amounted to £1,615,715, as given in Table No. 2. The accounts prepared under the cash basis system (Tables Nos. 1 and 2), however, show the actual financial position of the Colony

4.—REVENUE and RECEIPTS on account of the CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND for year ended 31st December, 1893.

General, Territorial, and Consolidated Revenue.—Prior to the date of the passing of the Constitution Act, the Revenue of the Colony was divided into two branches, the General and Territorial. The collections under the former were applied by the Colonial authorities, while the Territorial or Land Revenue was expended for local purposes by the Imperial Government. Under the 47th clause of the Constitution Act the Revenues were amalgamated as Consolidated Revenue Fund, the expenditure from which thenceforth being subject to appropriation by the New South Wales Legislature for the Services of the Colony.

Audit of Accounts. Under the terms of the Audit Act of 1870 (33 Vic. No 18) the Treasurer is required to furnish to the Colonial Auditor three months after each calendar year has closed, with a statement giving the transactions under the several heads of revenue and all other branches of the Public Accounts during the year. The officers employed by the Auditor in preparing Treasurer's Annual Statements make a report thereon, and present the result of their labours to the Auditor within six months after the receipt of the information from the Treasury. The Auditor General is appointed by the Governor and Executive Council but he cannot be removed from office without the sanction of both Houses of the Legislature. Detailed reports on the public accounts for all years are according to the audited statements.

Customs Revenue—Gross and Net. The amount of drawbacks and refunds of duties during 1893 was £52,215 3s. 9d., leaving a net revenue of £2,075,429 19s. 6d.

ic Public Debt.—The figures given include only interest paid, and not charges such as those incurred nt payment of the half-yearly dividends of Inscribed Stock by the Bank of England, exchanges with a &c.

Tramways. The expenditure under the head of Railways and Tramways does not include the £6,000 to the Commissioners for Railways, and the pension to the ex-Commissioner.

Surplus. At the end of 1877 the Accumulated Surplus, after all Outstanding Liabilities up to that nounted to £2,500,270. The Revenue for 1878, 1879, and 1880 was not sufficient to meet the ment s in these years, so that the balance at close of 1880 after all liabilities had been met was reduced rpluses of 1881 and 1882 however increased the fund to £4,421,182 at the end of the latter year, considerable sums were spent out of the Accumulated Surplus under special appropriations, and at the end of 18 at this fund became practically exhausted at the end of 1885. As late however as 1888, small payments cumulated Surplus, but for liabilities contracted under the Appropriation Acts of 1883 and former Government had, therefore, a reserve fund to meet any revenue deficiency arising, but from 1883-84 to be obtained from this source.

 1892 and 1893 Expenditure. The expenditure for 1892 is exclusive of a large sum paid in London during that year for interest on the Public Debt. 1892 expenditure on Railways, Tramways, &c., Services is consequently understated, while the Loss on the same Services for 1893 is correspondingly increased. The figures given for both these years must be taken with this qualification.

No. 11. TRUST FUNDS, 1893.

Trust Funds. The Trust Funds are divided into two classes—those subject to the provisions of the Audit Act and those not so subject. On the bulk of the funds the Government pay 4 per cent. interest, whether the moneys are retained in account or held by the Treasury in the form of cash or otherwise. It may be mentioned, however, that deposits in the Savings Bank of New South Wales deposits bear 4½ per cent. interest. On the following the Government pay interest under statutory authority or by arrangement.

What constitutes the Public Account. The Audit Act recognises only one "Public Account" for all receipts and expenditure connected with Consolidated Revenue, Trust Funds, or Loan Services. For convenience in working, however, the Account as now constituted consists of transactions under Consolidated Revenue Account, and Trust Funds under Audit Act.

Public Works Committee.—Under the provisions of the "Public Works Act of 1888" (51 Vic. No. 37) a Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works is appointed during the first session of each Parliament. Its functions are to report to Parliament upon proposals for public works, other than those connected with Military and Naval Defence, and the carrying out thereof. The Committee consists of thirteen Members of Parliament, five of whom are chosen from the Legislative Council, and eight from the Legislative Assembly. The Committee confines its investigations to works estimated to cost over £20,000, whether the proposed expenditure is from Loans or Consolidated Revenue; under the amount mentioned the Ministerial head of the Department has power to sanction the expenditure without reference to the Committee. During 1893 the remuneration paid to members of the Committee was £1,134.

INVESTMENT, TRADING, and COMMERCIAL COMPANIES.—Liabilities and Assets, for December Quarter, 1893. (Returns apply only to operations within New South Wales).

Companies Act. The Companies are incorporated under the Companies Act (37 Vic. No. 19). During 1879, Act 42 Vic. No. 13 was passed which provided for the extension of the provisions of the Banking Act, 4 Vic. No. 13, as amended by 38 Vic. No. 24 to Limited Liability Investment, and Trading Companies operating within New South Wales. It is, therefore, obligatory for the Companies to make quarterly sworn returns similar to those made by the Banks of Issue, and table gives the list of all Companies compelled under the Act to furnish returns, but those formed prior to passing of the 1879 Act, are not required to publish accounts.

No. 12. SYDNEY BRANCH, ROYAL MINT.—Currency.

Branches of Royal Mint.—The Sydney and Melbourne Branches of the Royal Mint are the only ones in existence in British Possessions, the Mints at Calcutta and Bombay being established on a different basis. The Sydney Branch was opened on 14th May, 1855, and that of Melbourne on 12th June 18[illegible]. Gold only is coined at the Branch Mints, the silver and bronze coin required for circulation in the Australasian Colonies being obtained from the London Mint. The expenditure of the Colonial establishments is borne by the respective Governments, the amount granted annually to the Sydney Mint being £15,000, the bulk of which, however, is refunded under the head of Mint Receipts.

Value per ounce.—The average value per ounce given above is obtained on the 22-carat basis, gold of that fineness being, as previously mentioned, worth £3 17s. 10½d. per ounce. The average value per ounce given in the above table represents the value of rough or unrefined gold—that is gold containing silver, copper, antimony, and other alloys.

Gold received from each District, 1884–93.

Light Gold and Silver Coins.—Light gold coins in parcels of not less than £50 nominal value are received at the Sydney Mint and recoined free of charge, but depositors are required to bear the loss by abrasion. The worn silver withdrawn from circulation is forwarded to England for recoinage.

Seigniorage.—The difference between the nominal value of silver and the average price per standard ounce paid by the Mint, represents the seigniorage or gross profit. The coinage or nominal value of silver per standard ounce is 5s. 6d., the price per ounce paid by the London Mint during 1891 averaged 3s. 7d. The difference, 1s. 5d., represents the seigniorage realised; against this, however, must be placed the loss to the Imperial Government by purchase of worn silver at nominal value, but after making all allowances for loss by abrasion, melting, &c., the seigniorage must be considerable.

"Miscellaneous Deeds" embrace all documents where valuable consideration is not stated, such as deeds of gift, deeds for benefit of creditors, settlements, powers of attorney, notifications of resumptions, conditional purchases with nominal consideration, writs of execution, &c., &c.

Amounts under the heads of Mortgages and Reconveyances incomplete.—In many instances the amount lent upon mortgage by the banks are not stated, but simply the words 'valuable consideration' or 'cash advanced' are inserted in the deed. As this occurs frequently when the properties mortgaged are evidently of great value, the non-use of the amounts must materially affect the returns, and, as a consequence the amounts under the heads of 'Mortgages' and 'Reconveyances' are necessarily incomplete.

No. 30.—REAL PROPERTY ACT, 26 VIC. No. 9 (commonly known "Torrens' ").—Land brought under the Act, 1888–93.

"Torrens' "Act.—The Real Property Act (commonly known as "Torrens' Act") was passed in 1862. In 1873 was slightly amended, and a further amendment was made in 1878. In the last amendment an important clause was whereby the registered owners of the land are protected from the operation of the Statute of Limitations, and there title is not liable to be taken from them by any length of adverse possession. To indemnify the Government for comp persons who, through error, may have been deprived of their properties, an Assurance Fund has been created by bution of one half-penny in the pound being levied on the declared capital value of property brought under the A fund at the end of 1893 amounted to £125,611.

Deeds Registration.—Under Act 11 Vic. No. 4, passed in 1847, any person making a bonâ fide advance to any proprietor of sheep, on condition of receiving in payment, or as security, the wool of the next ensuing clip, and duly registering the agreement, is entitled to the whole of the wool mentioned in the agreement. Mortgages on live stock, sheep, cattle, and horses, are valid whether the money secured by the mortgage be payable presently or not, and notwithstanding that the stock remain in the possession of the mortgagor.

* In addition to the above there were 25 discharges of wool liens, representing £33,931, and 11 transfers of mortgages.

† There were also registered 25 transfers of mortgages, 6 agreements, 2 deeds of confirmation, and 2 further assurances in which no amounts were specified.

Lien on Wool and Mortgage of Sheep.—When any sum has been secured, both by a lien on the wool and by mortgage of the sheep, the amount is included under the head of mortgages only. Thus in 1893, the gross amount lent on liens was £2,068,038; but from this has to be deducted the sum of £132,438, secured both by lien on the wool and mortgage on the sheep, and included in the figure in the last column, so that the net amount lent on lien was £1,935,600.

Under Act 26 Vic. No. 10.
Liens on Growing Crops.—An Act to legalise preferable liens on yearly crops (26 Vic. No. 10) was passed on the 9th December, 1862. Under its provisions liens on agricultural and horticultural produce may be made, and are valid without parting with the possession thereof.

Stamp Duties Act. The existing Act (44 Vic No. 3) was passed in 1880, and provided for the imposition of duties on 1st July of the same year. In 1886 an amendment was attached, under Act 50 Vic No. 14, which came into force 31st August of that year, one of the important alterations being the abolition of the 1 per cent. general rate, and adoption of a graduated scale of duties, on the estates of deceased persons, classified as follows:—Where the value of estate is under £1,000, 1 per cent.; £1,000 and under £2,500, 2 per cent.; £2,500 and under £5,000, 3 per cent.; £5,000 and under £50,000, 4 per cent.; over £50,000, 5 per cent. No Succession Duties are enforced.

Estates under the Value of £200 gross exempt.—Under the provisions of the Probate Act of 1890 (Amendment Act No. 30) passed in 1893, no stamp duty can be levied on estates under the value of £200 gross. The number of these from the 13th June to the 31st December, 1893, was 254, and the value £29,306, these figures being included in the valuation of the above table.

Area alienated during 1893. In the year 1893 an area of [illegible] acres (page 254) was [illegible] under the various modes of alienation. The area alienated at the end of 1893, after allowing for Resumptions (page [illegible]), Forfeitures, Voluntary Surrenders, and Reductions in Areas made during 1893, was [illegible] acres, which added to the area [illegible] and in process of alienation during the same year [illegible] acres gives a total, as stated above, of [illegible]

The [illegible] of area of Crown Lands held in virtue of Miners' Rights and Mineral and Business Licenses [illegible] is not known.

† Conditional Leases are in a certain sense Alienations, as the holder has the option of purchase as soon [illegible] final purchase. See Table No. 12, page 303.

No. 2.—LAND TRANSACTIONS during 1893.

Land Laws.—The body of the existing law is contained in the Crown Lands Act of 1884 and the Supplementary Act of 1889 (48 Vic. No. 16, and 53 Vic. No. 21 respectively). Under the 1884 Act the Colony was divided into three great territorial divisions—Eastern, Central, and Western, the boundaries of which however, were amended by Government Gazette notice in August, 1885. The Eastern Division covers an area of 60,452,000 acres, the Central, 55,460,000 acres, and the Western, 79,950,000 acres. The boundaries of the 141 counties existing were not interfered with. Under the same Act provision was made for each of the three divisions to be divided into Land Board Districts, and these again to be sub-divided into Land Districts. The number of the former at the end of 1893 was 14 and the latter 103.

Surrenders, Exchanges, and Resumptions.—Transactions under the two former are made under the 4 section of the 1889 Act, and the latter under the 42nd section of the same Act. Being merely land exchanged for la without any monetary consideration the extent of the area of Crown Lands is not thereby affected.

Auction Sales during 1893.

Auction Sales.—Crown Lands not exceeding 200,000 acres in the aggregate for the whole Colony in any one y may be sold by auction. Town lots are not to exceed ½ acre, suburban 20 acres, and country 640 acres. The up price for such land is fixed by the Minister, and is limited by law at not less than £3 per acre for town lands, £2 10s. suburban lands, and £1 5s. for other lands. A deposit equal to 25 per cent. of the purchase money is required on auct sales other than under system of deferred payments, and the balance must be paid within three months after the sa

Auction Sales under system of deferred payments.—Under the "Auction Sales Balances Act of 1887," Minister may make special terms of payments on auction sales of town and suburban lands, and lands subdivided i areas not exceeding 20 acres for sale by auction, pursuant to section 61 of the 1884 Act. The time allowed for defer payments must not in any case exceed five years from date of sale, and deferred payments bear interest at the rat 5 per cent. per annum.

Improvement Purchases during 1893.

Improvement Purchases.—Persons who, by virtue of miner's right or business license issued under the M Act, reside on land within a proclaimed gold-field, may, in consideration of improvements of a minimum value per acre for town lands and £2 10s. for suburban and country lands, purchase the land without competition.

The maximum area of land now available is limited to ¼ acre of town and 1 acre outside town boundaries. A cations made, however, prior to the 1884 Act becoming law are dealt with under the 1875 Act, under which the maxi area available for purchase was 640 acres.

[illegible]tional Purchases Special Areas. The system of proclaiming Special Areas available for [illegible]ional Purchase [illegible] under the Act of 1884. The prices of the lands are determined by the Government Valuer and are [illegible] in the Government Gazette when the Special Areas are proclaimed. The [illegible] are [illegible] per acre [illegible] to the [illegible] natural value. The minimum area to [illegible] suburban [illegible] population boundaries is [illegible] acres, and the maximum [illegible] Eastern Division at 320 acres, and for the Central and Western Divisions [illegible]. The conditions to be fulfilled are similar to those of the ordinary Conditional Purchases. No person is allowed [illegible] to apply for Land in Special Areas [illegible] being taken up in Special Areas in the Eastern Division [illegible] Land [illegible] from Lands can be taken up by [illegible] [illegible] Special Area [illegible] pending [illegible] of the Supreme Court [illegible] prohibition does not appear to apply to the Central Division.

[illegible]al Areas within Suburban or Population Boundaries. [illegible] Lands within Suburban or Population [illegible] which have been proclaimed Special Areas are available for Special Areas [illegible] same. The conditions are similar to those of Special Areas outside which are: Survey Fee, a deposit of [illegible] of the purchase money, [illegible] an instalment of [illegible] of the purchase money at the expiration of three years from date of application, [illegible] instalments annually of a like amount till the payments with interest are completed, the yearly payment [illegible] interest at the rate of 4 per cent. on the unpaid balance. Residence is compulsory.

*Artesian Well Leases. The area under this form of Lease is included with that under Occupation License. Until notification in the Gazette the area is subject to the Occupation License Fee only.

Conditional Leases converted into Additional Conditional Purchases.—From the 1st December, 1869, the date the Land Act of 1869 came into force, to the 31st December, 1893, 435,945 acres, originally taken up under Conditional Leases, have been converted into Additional Conditional Purchases.

Miners' Rights, Mineral and Business Licenses.—The above figures are exclusive of land held under these forms of tenure, the area of which is not known.

Crown Rents.—The amount of Rent collected on the Leases is that stated by the Lands Department, and consequently differs somewhat from the Treasury Returns shown in "Part III, Public Finance."

No. 12.—PARTICULARS relating to OCCUPATION—1893.

of Lease under 1884 and 1889 Land Acts.—Prior to the 1884 Act the only forms of lease granted we nal, Special, and Pre-emptive. Under the 1884 Act provision was made for each of these forms of lease to l ept the pre-emptive, which was abolished. Under the same Act, Occupation Licenses, Conditional and Hom vere established. The supplementary Act of 1889 provided for five additional forms of Lease, which were -Scrub, Snow Land, Artesian Well, Residential, and Inferior Land.

	Currency of Lease under Crown Land Acts of 1884 and 1889.	Limit of Area.	Remarks.
	Pastoral Leases.
al	Eastern Division—Leases expired, 1890. Central Division—10 years currency from 1885; leases expire 1895. Western Division—15 years currency (1884 Act); 21 years currency from 1890 (1889 Act).	No limit fixed	Areas under pastoral lease are exempt from conditional or unconditional sales or any form of lease. The bulk of the pastoral leases in the Eastern Division expired in 1890, but as late as 1893 an area of 67,635 acres was under lease. This area represents two leases, which were divided on 15th November, 1889, under the provisions of the 1884 Land Act, the leases having 5 years currency from that date. During April, 1894, the leases were forfeited for non-payment of rent; all the pastoral leases in this division have therefore expired.
	Occupation Licenses.
	ORDINARY.
al	From January to December—Renewal is subject to payment of license fee.	No limit fixed	Lands held under occupation license are available for conditional purchase or conditional lease in the Eastern and Central Divisions, and to homestead lease in the Western Division.
	PREFERENTIAL.
	Same as ordinary license..	No limit fixed	Under the 33 section of Lands Act, 1889, the holder of a pastoral lease in the Eastern Division has a preferential right to an occupation license on area hitherto held by him under pastoral lease. Other conditions are similar to those of ordinary occupation license.
	Homestead Leases.
ly.	Fifteen years currency from 1885 (1884 Act); 21 years currency from 1890 (1889 Act).	Maximum, 10,240 acres; minimum, 2,560 acres. Under section 34 Act 1889, the minimum area can be reduced to 640 acres.	Areas under homestead lease are exempt from conditional purchase. Lands held under annual lease or occupation license are available for homestead lease.
	Conditional Leases.
	GAZETTED.
ad ly.	Under 1884 Act, 15 years from confirmation; under 1889 Act, 15 years from date of application.	Area cannot exceed three times the area of conditional purchase, and cannot be less than 40 acres. In the Eastern Division the total area conditionally purchased and conditionally leased must not exceed 1,280 acres, and in the Central Division 2,560 acres.	Lands in the Eastern and Central Divisions available for ordinary conditional purchase are open for conditional lease. A conditional lease, even of ordinary lands, cannot be taken in virtue of a special area conditional purchase in the Eastern Division. This limitation does not, however, apply to the Central Division. Land in the Western Division is not now available for conditional lease. The conditional leases existing in the Western Division are cancelled pre-emptive leases converted into conditional leases under the Act of 1884.
	UNCONFIRMED (not Gazetted).
	Same as gazetted leases ..	Same as gazetted leases ..	Under the 1889 Act unconfirmed conditional leases are subject to a provisional rent of 2d. per acre.
	Annual Leases.
and	From January to December of each year.	Area cannot exceed 1,920 acres	Lands held under annual lease are available for auction sale, conditional purchase, conditional lease, special lease, snow land lease, and homestead lease in the Western Division.

† Not including quantity made into coke.

§ Emeralds.—25,000 carats of emeralds were got at Emmaville during 1892, but the value is not known.

‡ Manufactured from Scrap and Old Iron.—There were also £22,605 and £14,786 worth of iron manufactured in the Colony in 1892 and 1893 respectively from scrap and old iron, but not from New South Wales ores.

* Silver Lead.—The greater part of the silver produced is exported in the shape of silver lead.

Imported Copper and Tin refined in New South Wales.—In the statements of 1888 and previous years the value of copper and tin imported from other colonies and refined in New South Wales was included as domestic produce; this has been corrected.

* In previous years certain substances and manufactured products were wrongly included under this head.

ADDENDUM.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE EXPERIMENTAL FARMS AND NURSERY.

Hawkesbury Agricultural College and Farm.—The buildings and furnishings of this College and Farm, now in their fourth year of existence, are approaching completion. At present the buildings occupied by the students are remote from the operations of the farm. During 1893 there were 52 students enrolled, one being non-resident, and 9 were awarded the College diploma, which is accompanied by the "Burdekin" medal, founded by Mr. Sydney Burdekin. The Minister's and the Principal's prizes (gold medals), as well as book prizes for various subjects, are awarded annually. Theoretical and practical instruction is afforded by experts in every branch of agriculture, and experimental work is carried on with cereal and other crops, fertilisers, the analyses of soils, dishorning and spaying of cattle, etc. The live stock belonging to the farm and college during 1893 consisted of 22 horses, 12 bullocks, 181 dairy cattle, 25 pigs, and 43 wethers. The principal operations were :—

Acres.	Crop.	Yield per acre.	Acres.	Crop.	Yield per acre.
100	Oats and wheat.. ..	1 ton to 30 cwt. hay.	13	Swede turnips	15 tons.
16	Lucerne	.....	70	Maize	25 bushels.
15	Sorghum	10 tons ensilage.	25	Pumpkins and melons..	.....
6	Maize	7 ,, ,,	4	Potatoes	.....

An orchard, 10 acres in extent, and a vineyard of 5 acres have been planted, and the growing of plants for scents has been commenced. Dairying is carried on, the yield of milk for 1893 being 11,645 gallons. Instruction is given in the management of poultry and bees. The students are also taught to kill and dress sheep, carpentry and blacksmith's work, fencing, and mechanical trades. Three out-door lady students attended the lessons in apiculture during the year.

Murrumbidgee Experimental Farm.—This farm is situated near the town of Wagga Wagga, and although only recently established, about 9½ miles of boundary fencing have been erected, and the experimental paddock of about 50 acres has been enclosed with rabbit-proof wire netting; about 80 acres have also been laid out as orchards and vineyards, and several thousands of trees and vines planted. There is no natural water supply, but a large tank has been excavated. Experiments have been made with wheat (over 400 varieties having been sown to test their rust-resisting capacities), rye, barley (especially malting varieties), peas, turnips, potatoes, tobacco, and other crops. Seeds are sent from the farm for distribution amongst farmers in different localities, not a few of whom attended by special invitation at the farm on 1st December, 1894, to test the results of the experiments made in wheat culture.

Richmond River Experimental Farm.—This is situated at Wollongbar on the southern side of the road from Lismore to Ballina. Experiments are conducted with the view to determine the most suitable fodder plants for these districts; and many varieties of sugar-cane, some procured from Jamaica, as well as different semi-tropical and tropical plants and fruits have been planted in order to test their value and suitability.

Trial Stations.—Advantage has been taken of some of the Artesian Bores in the arid country between the Darling River and the Queensland Border to show what crops and trees can be grown in those districts by means of irrigation. Plantations of fruit and forest trees, sugar-cane, cereals, grasses, and potatoes, have been made at the following stations :—

Native Dog Bore	Belalie Bore	Coolabah Tank	Waddell Tank
Barringun Bore	Eugonia Bore	Byerock Tank	Moongulla Bore.

Plantations of forest trees and wattles have also been made at Otford, Moonbi, Bargo, Tomago, and the Sand-drift, Newcastle.

State Forest Nursery, Gosford.—At this establishment the propagation of plants, chiefly those suitable for street and avenue planting, and timber trees for putting out on forest reserves, is carried on. The total output from the Nursery of forest, fruit, and ornamental trees and plants has been :—

Reserves, plantations, and artesian bores	127,911
Schools and public bodies	46,547
Total..	174,458

The estimated number of plants and shrubs established at the Nursery, February, 1894, was :—

Open rooted plants and shrubs	400,000
Trees and shrubs in pots	23,000
Trees and shrubs in boxes	30,000

Classification of Hands Employed.—As it is of first importance to accurately classify the hands into their respective employments, it has been customary to subdivide works where more than one important industry is followed. Thus where Boot-making and Tanning are carried on in the same establishment, if both industries are large, they would be treated as separate works, as with Engineering and Joinery, Brewing and Cordial-making, &c.

For 1893, see note on page 490. Agricultural implement manufactories are not included under any of these heads. ¶ Iron and Brass Foundries and Machinery and Engineering are taken together, for though efforts have been made each year to distribute them into their separate divisions, such distribution has been only partially successful.  Accurate information not available prior to 1886. †† Saddlery: Only larger repairing shops included in 1886-93, but all included prior to 1886.

Establishments where more than one Industry is carried on.—When more than one kind of work is carried on in one establishment, it has frequently been found impossible to distinguish the number of hands engaged in the various industries; in such cases the total has been credited to the principal industry.

Tobacco manufactured from locally-grown leaf—The figures representing the New South Wales grown leaf are obtained by subtracting from the total quantity of tobacco manufactured the weight of the imported leaf used. It is probable the figures are too high as ingredients other than tobacco leaf are used in the making of tobacco.

Boroughs and Municipal Districts—Municipalities Act.—Under the provisions of Act 31 Vic. No. 12 the Municipalities were divided into two classes, Boroughs and Municipal Districts, although the name of "Municipality" is still common to both institutions. A borough shall, upon its first incorporation, contain an area of not more than 9 square miles with a population of not less than 1,000; a municipal district must not exceed 50 square miles, and shall contain a population of at least 500. The boundaries of each class of division must not overlap.

ey is classed as a Municipality, but is incorporated under a Special Act.

Aborigines.—The Aboriginal population was not included in the Census of 1861, while in 1871 and 1881 the wandering tribes were passed over, and only those who were civilized or in contact with Europeans were enumerated. It is probable that the numbers for these years were, approximately—in 1861, 15,000; in 1871, 12,000; and in 1881, 10,000.

Aborigines. The Aborigines are not included for the years 1861 and 1891, but for 1871 and 1881, when the wandering tribes were passed over, those who were civilized or in communication with Europeans were enumerated, so that the returns for 1871 and 1881 include 983 and 1,043 Aborigines respectively. In the above table also those unspecified as to conjugal condition have been distributed by proportion amongst the other numbers.

( ) Denotes excess of Emigration.

Excess of Immigration.—It is believed that not a few persons leave New South Wales without their departure being recorded, the figures given, therefore, are somewhat in excess of the truth.

Chinese.—Under Act. 52 Vic., No. 4, passed in the year 1888, no Chinese, unless exempted by the Act, are allowed to enter New South Wales either by sea or land without the payment of a tax of £100 each. The exemptions are—Chinese who are British subjects by birth who have been naturalised in New South Wales, or those who arrive on a special mission under the authority of the British or Chinese Governments, and members of crews of vessels who land in the performance of their duties. Naturalisation of Chinese in New South Wales is now prohibited by the Act. Chinese naturalised in other Colonies are not entitled to the right of British citizenship in New South Wales.

laturalisation Act.—The first Act empowering the Governor to grant letters of naturalisation in New South ras assented to in 1828 (9 Geo. IV, No. 6). The next important Act passed was 11 Vic., No. 39, as amended by No. 8. This was repealed in 1875 in favour of the Act now in force, 39 Vic., No. 19. An alien who has resided in New Wales for a term of not less than five years may apply to the Governor to be naturalised. Should a certificate ralisation be granted, the applicant must take the oath of allegiance prescribed by the Act. The Colonial ry is required to record all certificates of naturalisation, and to receive a fee of one pound for each certificate A register of certificates of naturalisation that have been granted may be inspected upon payment of a fee of one hinese.—A clause in the Chinese Immigrants Regulation and Restriction Act of 1861 (25 Vic., No. 3) provided rtificates of naturalisation should not be granted to Chinese. The Act was, however, repealed on the 20th ber, 1867, but since the date of the passing of the Chinese Restriction and Regulation Act of 1888 (52 Vic., No. 4), no tes of naturalisation can be issued to Chinese in New South Wales.

ertificates of Naturalisation.—Certificates of naturalisation granted in other Colonies do not confer the right of ship in New South Wales.

Inquests.—In all cases of violent and unnatural deaths, casualties by which death ensues, sudden deaths, persons found dead, persons dying in gaols, lock-ups, and hospitals, persons committing suicide, and persons executed in gaols, it is the duty of the Coroner of the district to cause an inquest to take place, if he have reasonable grounds to believe that death was caused by violent or unnatural means. In all cases of deaths in gaols inquests must be held. A Coroner is empowered to issue a warrant for the exhumation of a body, to summon jurors and witnesses, and to commit persons for trial who have been found guilty, by a jury, of murder or manslaughter. See also Notes, Part viii, "Law and Crime," and x, "Miscellaneous."

Magisterial Inquiries.—In a district where no Coroner has been appointed, or is unable to hold the usual inquest, a Magistrate may hold an inquiry; but, owing to the fact that he is not empowered to commit a suspected person for trial, he must terminate the inquiry, in all cases where facts are disclosed which point to the criminality of a person, and direct the Police to prosecute at the nearest Police Court.

No. 4.—DEPARTMENTAL POLICE DISTRICTS, 1893.

partmental Police Districts.—The Colony is divided into ten Departmental Police Districts, each of which is of a Superintendent of Police; these districts are subdivided into sub-districts in charge of an Inspector or ector of Police. The head-quarters and sub-districts and the police force attached to each district are shown in ring table. The numbers given for the Metropolitan District include 17 Detectives and 51 Constables in course of on, under orders for transfer, &c.

zetted Police Districts.—The Departmental Police Districts (Inspector-General's Office) are in no way identical gazetted Petty Sessions or Police Districts, as several of the latter are contained in one of the former, while laries of each class are in no way common. The number of Petty Sessions or Police Districts during 1894 was 292.

No. 15.—MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—CASES brought before Magistra Courts during 1893.

Magistrates' Courts.—The Magistrates' Courts or Courts of Petty Sessions in the Metropolitan District are pr over by six Stipendiary Magistrates, and in the Country Districts Police Magistrates and Justices of the Peace adjuc the latter being honorary officers. The jurisdiction of Magistrates is limited to offences involving a penalty of six m imprisonment and under in all cases except those under the "Distillation Acts" and the "Customs Regulations Acts," sentence of twelve months can be imposed, and two years for cases under the "Chinese Restriction and Regulation 1888," and the "Children's Protection Act 1892." All persons, except those committed by Supreme Court Judge Coroners, who are entered on the charge sheet of the police must be brought before Magistrates to be by them sumr dealt with or committed to a higher court.

Cumulative Sentences.—According to a circular of the Justice Department, dated February, 1894, Magistrat not empowered to pass cumulative sentences on persons brought before the Court, but a prisoner, whilst undergoing s of imprisonment on one charge, may be brought before the Court to answer for the committal of a second offence, a found guilty, can be sentenced to a further term of imprisonment, to commence upon the expiration of the sentence being served.

Police Summonses.—For explanation of difference between returns of summonses by police, and similar summ by Courts, see explanatory note, page 554.

16.—MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—PERSONS brought before Magistrates' Courts during 1893.

Persons Committed for Trial. The Returns of Courts of Quarter Sessions (page 568, Table No. 17), and the Central Criminal Courts (page 571, Table No. 18), show 1,501 persons as committed for trial, after allowing for persons who would not appear in the higher court returns for 1893, the number stated in the Magistrates Courts (1533) too high, which is accounted for by the fact that some of the returns supplied apply to cases and not persons. The number of distinct cases as returned from Magistrates' Courts and the higher courts, however, very closely agree.

*Whipping.—Under the Criminal Law Amendment Act (50 Vic. No. 17), provision has been made for whipping as an additional punishment, chiefly for offences classed as wanton and unprovoked assaults and indecent exposure. The Court may, however, consist of two or more Justices, one of whom shall be a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate. In the Metropolitan District the cases are heard by Stipendiary Magistrates.

No. 17.—COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—CASES and PERSONS (M and Female) brought before each Court, 1893.

Quarter Sessions.—The Courts of Quarter Sessions are presided over by Chairmen, who also perform the duties Judges of the District Courts. There are seven Chairmen of Quarter Sessions, two of whom preside over the Courts in Metropolitan and Hunter Districts, and one each in the following districts Southern, South western, Western, North and North-western Any offences, except capital ones, are within the jurisdiction of these Courts.

On the trial of prisoners at Quarter Sessions, the Chairman, at the request of the prisoner's counsel, must re questions of law for the consideration of the Supreme Court, or he may so act motu proprio.

No. 19.—CENTRAL CRIMINAL AND CIRCUIT COURTS—CASES and PERSONS (Male and Female) brought before each Court, 1893.

Central Criminal Court.—A Judge of the Supreme Court presides over the Central Criminal Court held at Sydney; prisoners are tried by a jury of twelve. Under Act 57 Vic. No. 9, a person charged with any criminal offence may be called not compelled to give evidence in any court on hearing of such charge. An accused person may also make a statement at the close of the case for the prosecution without being liable to examination thereupon by counsel for the Crown or by the Court. The verdict of the jury must be unanimous. If no verdict is returned the prisoner is liable to be tried over again by another jury.

Circuit Courts. In addition to the supreme, civil, and criminal sittings of the Court held in Sydney, the Judges hold Courts called Circuit Courts, for dealing with the more serious class of criminal cases, especially those in which the capital penalty is involved, and for hearing civil causes at certain circuit towns.

Extradition Act, 1870 (Imperial Statute). This Act provides for the surrender to Foreign States of persons accused or convicted of certain crimes within the jurisdiction of such States and for the trial of criminals surrendered to Her British Dominions. Treaties of Extradition for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals exist between Her Majesty's Government and the Governments of France, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Brazil, Spain, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden and Norway, Switzerland, Hayti, and the United States of America. In proceedings under the Act the fugitive is brought before the Governor, who hears evidence on oath and, if satisfied that the person is liable to be extradited, makes a warrant to that effect.

Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881 (Imperial Statute). Provision is made in this Act for the surrender from the United Kingdom to a British possession, or vice versâ, or from one British possession to another, of fugitives charged with the commission of any offence within it, in the part of Her Majesty's Dominions where it was committed punishable by imprisonment with hard labour for twelve months or more, or by some greater punishment. Persons apprehended under this Act are dealt with at a Magistrates' Court, and are not included in the above table.

o. 25.—DISTINCT PERSONS Committed to Gaol under Sentence DURING 1893, Distinguishing the NUMBER Convicted ONCE, TWICE, &c.

Licenses (Ticket of Leave).—See explanatory note, page 580.

First Offenders' Probation Act of 1894 (57 Vic. No. 23).—Under the provisions of this Act a person, convicted on e first offence, may be set at liberty on certain conditions instead of being sent to prison. Although the sentence is so passed in the usual form, the Court has power to suspend its execution, upon the offender entering into a recognizance, th or without sureties, for his good behaviour, for a period of not less than twelve months. The offender is examined for e purpose of future identification, and must report himself to the police at least once in every three months. Should he l to do so, or seriously misconduct himself during the period of probation, he is liable to be arrested, the recognizance feited, and committed to prison to complete his sentence. If, however, his conduct has been satisfactory, he shall be dis-arged from the sentence and the conviction for which it was imposed shall not be brought against him on any subsequent asion.

No. 30.—PERSONS received into Gaols UNDER SENTENCE (counted e every time they were received), and TERMS of IMPRISONMENT. 189

Comptroller-General of Prisons.—Under Act 57 Vic. No. 14, the office of Comptroller-General of Prisons established, and prison regulations are enforced under the Prisons Regulations Act of 1893 (56 Vic. No. 29).

Terms of Imprisonment.—The terms of imprisonment for the several offences are defined in the Crimes Amendment Act of 1893 (57 Vic. No. 17) and the Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act of 1891 (55 Vic. No. 7).

Remission of Sentences.—Prisoners, by continuous good conduct and industry, become eligible for a remission of sentence in proportion to the term served by them, in accordance with the following scale:—In cases of cumulative sentences the total period shall be deemed the term of sentence. Sentences not exceeding five years, a service of six-sevenths of sentence; sentences of five and not exceeding ten years, a service of four-fifths; sentences of more than ten years, a service of three-fourths of the term, except in sentences commuted from capital convictions, and prisoners under sentences not exceeding twelve months. Prisoners under such sentences, however, are not debarred from having the circumstances of their cases taken into consideration.

Licenses Ticket of Leave.—Under section 490 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, the Governor may at any time, conditionally upon an offender under sentence giving security by recognisance for good behaviour as shall seem meet, grant a written license for him to be at large within specified limits for the unexpired portion of the sentence, and subject to conditions prescribed the sentence shall be suspended.

No. 30.—PERSONS received into Gaols UNDER SENTENCE (counted once every time they were received), and TERMS of IMPRISONMENT, 1893.

Comptroller-General of Prisons.—Under Act 37 Vic. No. 14, the office of Comptroller-General of Prisons was established, and prison regulations are enforced under the Prisons Regulations Act of 1840 (4 Vic. No. 29).

Terms of Imprisonment. The terms of imprisonment for the several offences are defined in the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1883 (46 Vic. No. 17) and the Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act of 1891 (55 Vic. No. 5).

Remission of Sentences.—Prisoners, by continuous good conduct and industry, become eligible for a remission of sentence, in proportion to the term served by them, in accordance with the following scale:—In cases of cumulative sentences, the united period shall be deemed the term of sentence. Sentences not exceeding five years, a service of five-sixths; sentences beyond five, but not exceeding ten years, a service of four-fifths; sentences of more than ten years, a service of three-fourths of the term, except in sentences commuted from capital convictions, and prisoners serving sentences not exceeding twelve months. Prisoners under such sentences, however, are not debarred from having the circumstances of their cases taken into consideration.

Licenses Ticket of Leave.—Under section 400 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, the Governor may at any time, conditionally upon an offender under sentence giving security by recognisance for good behaviour as shall seem meet, grant a written license for him to be at large within specified limits for the unexpired portion of the sentence, and subject to conditions prescribed the sentence shall be suspended.

No. 32.—CLASSIFICATION of SENTENCES of persons (counted once every time they were received) committed to Gaol under Sentence during 1893.

Penal Servitude.—Penal servitude is not awarded if the term of imprisonment is less than three years. In the case of male prisoners it is taken to mean hard labour on the roads or other public works, and for female prisoners hard labour in gaol. This punishment is practically the same as that of hard labour.

Hard Labour.—Prisoners under sentence of hard labour are after examination by the Medical Officer, put to work at occupations which the gaol authorities consider come within the meaning of the sentence.

Without Labour (Imprisonment only).—Prisoners undergoing a sentence of imprisonment without labour are treated differently to others, and, if they can afford it, find and clothe themselves, are exempted from any work. Otherwise they contribute to their own support by performing such labour as may be provided.

Sentences to Irons.—Under section 405 Criminal Law Amendment Act a prisoner who has been convicted of a felony attended with violence to the person, or committed by the offender when armed, or by means of any threat, may be kept in irons for any portion, not exceeding the first three years, of his term of punishment.

Persons executed.—Five persons suffered the extreme penalty of the law during 1893, (Table No. 36, page 589), but as one was convicted in the previous year 4 of those who were executed only appear in the above Table.

No. 33.—PRISONERS in CONFINEMENT on the 31st December, 1893.

Principal and Minor Gaols.—These terms are Departmental, the only difference between the two classes of institutions being that the former are larger and more important, and have greater facilities for the employment of prisoners sentenced to hard labour.

Police Gaols.—These are small lock-ups which have been established for short-sentenced prisoners and persons awaiting trial. The buildings belong to the Department of the Inspector-General of Police, but the Comptroller-General of Prisons occupies a portion for the retention of the above class of persons. The gaolers are police constables, but each receives a nominal salary from the Comptroller-General of Prisons' Department.

Awaiting Trial.—Persons awaiting trial are allowed to see their legal adviser, and others who may visit them, in reference to their trial. It is not required that they should wear prison clothing, and many other privileges, consistent with safe custody, are allowed.

Under Examination.—Persons under examination are not allowed any communication in the prison, except with their legal advisers, unless specially sanctioned by the Justice conducting the examination.

Debtors.—Debtors are not required to wear prison clothing, nor to perform work, and are treated in separate wards according to rules made by the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Lunatics.—Lunatics of the Criminal class when placed in Gaol are kept in separate wards, under the supervision of the Gaol Surgeon. They are generally transferred to the Hospital for Criminal Insane, at Parramatta, but in some cases the prisoners are detained in the observation wards of the ordinary gaols. For number in confinement at this institution, as well as in ordinary gaols, see Part IX, "Education, Religion, and Charities."

Prisoners under Sentence. Distinct persons convicted during the year have been added to those prisoners under sentence whose terms had not expired at close of the previous year.

Gaol Punishments. A Visiting Justice is appointed under Act 4 Vic. No. 20 to visit each Gaol. He is empowered to hear and determine all complaints which may be made against a prisoner for disobeying the rules of the gaol or having committed any offence, and may pass a sentence of confinement in a solitary cell for a term not exceeding seven days. In the case of repeated offences, a charge made before two or more Justices of the Peace renders the prisoner liable to a sentence of close confinement for one month; and if the offence has been committed by a prisoner under sentence of felony, or under sentence of hard labour, a punishment of personal correction may be awarded.

No. 41.—LOCAL OPTION Vote, taken February, 1894.

Option.—Under the provisions of the Licensing Act of 1882 (45 Vic. No. 14), as amended by the Licensing Act of 1887 (51 Vic. No. 40), a local option vote is taken every three years in every Municipality or Ward of a Municipality, at which the ratepayers have to declare either "Yes" or "No" to two questions:—(1.) Whether any new Licenses shall be granted during the ensuing three years in that Municipality or Ward; (2.) Whether any publicans' licenses shall be allowed within the same period. It is necessary that there shall be a majority of two-thirds of the votes polled to enact the vote operates in the negative. While polls taken heretofore have shown a small proportion of the voters have exercised their local option votes. Although the local option vote is taken every three years in every Municipality or Ward of a Municipality, the year in which it is taken is not the same in all. The following table shows those Municipalities and Wards where the vote was taken in 1894:—

No. 42.—LICENSES Current during 1893, under Act 45 Vic. No. 1 amended by Act 46 Vic. No. 24—1892-3.

Licensing Districts.—The Colony is divided into Licensing Districts, which are proclaimed by publicatio Gazette, and in each of which a Licensing Court has jurisdiction. At the close of 1893, 113 of these districts had proclaimed.

Metropolitan Licensing Court.—The Stipendiary Magistrates for the time being, and such other person or as the Governor may appoint, not to exceed seven in all, of whom three form a quorum, constitute the Metr Licensing Court. There are two places of sitting, viz., the Central and Water Police Courts.

Country Licensing Courts.—In the Country Districts the Court is composed of three members, one being the "official," and the other two "appointed" members. The official member is the Police Magistrate resident w nearest to the district, if residing within 10 miles of the Court House. The appointed members only hold office for a time, but may be reappointed. With a few exceptions there is only one place of sitting in each District, and that is g held at the town from which the District is named.

No. 47.—DISTRICT COURTS—Nature of Causes, 1893.

District Courts.—The Colony is divided for District Court purposes into six districts, and the Courts are presi over by Judges appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, upon the recommendation of Minister of Justice. They are held at least twice during the year, at the places directed by the Governor-in-Council dates appointed by the Judges of the respective districts. The jurisdiction of these Courts is purely civil, and is q distinct from that exercised by the District Court Judges when acting as Chairmen of Quarter Sessions. District Co have no jurisdiction in actions where the amount claimed exceeds £200, or where the title of land or the validity of devise, bequest, or limitation under a will or settlement, shall be in question, nor in actions for seduction; but they empowered (37 Vic. No. 13) to hear appeals from decisions in Mining Wardens' Courts.

Appeals and New Trial Motions.—During 1893 there were 9 appeals from the judgments of these Courts, of which 5 were confirmed and 4 reversed. There were also 15 motions for new trials, 4 of which were granted. The right of appeal can only be exercised in causes in which the amount claimed exceeds £10, and must be made either on points of law or in respect to the admission or rejection of evidence.

Causes tried by Jury.—Of the 5,839 causes heard during 1893, only 96 were tried by Jury. When the amount in dispute exceeds £20 either of the parties may, by giving notice to the Registrar of the Court, have a Jury summoned.

). 49.—SUPREME and CIRCUIT COURTS—CAUSES DECIDED.

ıreme and Circuit Courts.—All actions at law, all civil issues of fact, all damages, and all sums of money e, are assessed and computed, before one or more Judges, by a jury of four persons, unless application is made by ed to either party to the suit for a jury of twelve.

ms.—There are four Terms during each year, the dates of which are fixed by the Judges, as are also the days ;s commence, the duration of Vacations, and the dates for holding Circuits.

lges.—There are seven Judges attached to the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice, and the six Puisne Judges, who determine matters in Common Law, Equity, Probate, Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, Vice-Admiralty, and ;y. A Judge can only be removed from office upon the Address of both Houses of Legislature. Pensions are le by the Judges upon permanent disability or infirmity or after fifteen years' service. The amount of such as well as their salaries, are secured and regulated by various Acts.

ors.—Common jurors are liable to be summoned for the Criminal Courts once a year only, and Special jurors are ddition, to be called upon to serve once for the Civil Courts. The qualifications for the Common jury are a yearly at least £30, or property to the value of £300. For the Special jury owners or tenants of property of a yearly ɔt less than £100, Justices of the Peace, bankers, merchants, and some others of specified occupations are qualified. No. 5 (Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act) Justices of the Peace are no longer exempt from serving as General or Quarter Sessions, nor are those persons whose names are on the Special Jury List.

No. 50.—SUPREME COURT—Common Law and Equity, 1884–1893.

Common Law.—Under Act 9 George IV, the Supreme Court of New South Wales was given jurisdiction in all cases whatsoever as fully and amply as the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer had in England, and it was to be at all times a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, and the Judges were given the same jurisdiction and authority as the Judges of those three Courts in England.

Equity.—The same Act constituted the Supreme Court of New South Wales a Court of Equity, and empowered it to perform all things necessary to such equitable jurisdiction as the Lord Chancellor can in England. The Equity Act, 1880, and subsequent Acts, regulate its practice and procedure.

No. 51.—SUPREME COURT FEES—Prothonotary and Master in Equity, 1884–1893.

Prothonotary.—The Common Law Department of the Supreme Court is placed in charge of the Prothonotary, who is also Registrar of the Divorce and Vice-Admiralty Courts. His principal duties are to tax all costs in actions, to have charge of records and custody of exhibits, and to keep a Register of Attorneys. The duties arising under the various Acts regulating the printing and publication of newspapers also belong to the office of the Prothonotary.

Master in Equity.—The office of Master in Equity in New South Wales combines the duties of "Accountant General," "Registrar," "Head of the Records and Writ office," and of "Taxing Officer," as well as those performed in England by the Judges in Chambers through their chief clerks.

Master in Lunacy.—By the passing of Act 42 Vic. No. 7, Commissions de Lunatico Inquirendo were abolished and the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, on application to his satisfaction, is empowered to make declarations in lieu thereof. The same statute enacted that the Master in Equity for the time being should be Master in Lunacy, and it confers upon him large powers of management. For further particulars and transactions, 1884-93, see Part IX, "Education, Religion, and Charities."

Sheriff.—The duties of the Sheriff comprise the provision of everything necessary for the preservation of order in the Supreme Court. He must be present personally or by deputy at all Jury Courts throughout the Colony. He executes all process in Supreme Court writs, [illegible] of estreat, &c., and has charge of all imprisoned debtors and prisoners, summonses all juries, and makes [illegible] necessary for the execution of prisoners sentenced to death.

52.—SUPREME COURT—DIVORCE and MATRIMONIAL CAUSES, 1873-93.

Divorce.—Prior to the passing of the Matrimonial Causes Act of 1873 (36 Vic. No. 9), the Supreme Court of N.S.W. exercised ecclesiastical jurisdiction in matters of divorce. The existing Act (57 Vic. No. 9) was assented to on the 9th May 1892, but did not come into force until the 1st March 1893. Each Act, including the Amending Act (54 Vic. No. 10) was assented to on the 9th May 1873. The chief grounds for which a divorce a vinculo matrimonii may be obtained are the wilful and deliberate desertion of the petitioner by the respondent for three years and upwards, adultery, and cruelty. The following causes peremptorily entitle the petitioner to a decree:—Husband's petition: Adultery of the wife. Wife's petition: Adultery of the husband, which has been aggravated by cruelty, or by desertion without reasonable excuse for two years and upwards. The following causes entitle the petitioner to a decree in the discretion of the Court:—Husband's petition: Adultery of the wife, where the husband has been guilty of cruelty towards her, or of wilful desertion for two years and upwards. Wife's petition: Adultery of the husband, where since the marriage he has been convicted of an aggravated assault upon her, or has been guilty of cruelty towards her without cause, or of an assault endangering life, or of grievous bodily harm, or repeated assaults, or has been guilty of adultery coupled with such desertion, or such wilful neglect to provide reasonable maintenance for her and her children as is equivalent in the circumstances of the case to cruelty, or of two years' wilful desertion. Wife's petition: Husband convicted of rape, sodomy, or bestiality. Husband's petition: Where the husband was domiciled in New South Wales at the time of the marriage, and the wife has been habitually resident in New South Wales for not less than three years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition, and the husband has been convicted in New South Wales or elsewhere of felony or misdemeanor, and sentenced to imprisonment for three years or more, and is undergoing such sentence at the time of presentation of the petition. Wife's petition: Where the husband has been habitually resident in New South Wales for not less than three years immediately preceding the presentation of the petition, and the husband has been convicted in New South Wales or elsewhere of felony or misdemeanor, and sentenced to imprisonment for three years or more, and is undergoing such sentence at the time of presentation of the petition. Where a wife petitions for a decree on the ground of three years' desertion, if she was domiciled in New South Wales when the desertion commenced, she shall not be deemed to have lost her domicile by reason of having subsequently acquired a fresh domicile.

Decrees nisi of the decree absolute was granted before 1893 and previous years, 96 were made absolute in 1893, leaving [illegible] decrees have not been made absolute. After a decree nisi has been granted, it can be made absolute on application to the Court for that purpose. Neither party can remarry until after fourteen days from the date of the decree nisi having been made absolute.

Judicial Separation.—In addition to the principal causes for which a divorce may be obtained, judicial separation may be decreed for desertion extending over two years.

No. 53.—SUPREME COURT—Appellate Cases.

Appellate Cases.—Appeals against any order or decision of the District Court may be made to the Supreme Court, and against any order, decision, or ruling of the Judge in Bankruptcy, or of any other Judge of the Supreme Court, to the Full Court, and the right of appeal to the Privy Council from any judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the "Court of Appeals" of the Colony was declared by the Charter of Justice and continued by Act 9 Geo. IV C. 83. Appeals to the Privy Council can be made in any case when the sum or matter at issue exceeds £500 in value by leave of the Court, obtained within fourteen days after judgment has been pronounced. The Crown, however, may admit an appeal in any case upon the petition of the person or persons aggrieved.

No. 54.—SUPREME COURT—Probates and Letters of Administration.

Probate, &c.—By the Probate Act 54 Vic. No. 25, the jurisdiction previously vested in the Primary Judge in Equity was transferred to the Supreme Court and its Probate Jurisdiction, and such Judge as might be appointed Probate Judge. The duties performed by the Prothonotary and Ecclesiastical Clerk were at the same time transferred to the Registrar of Probates. Prior to the passing of this Act all applications for probate and letters of administration (except where the gross amount of the estate did not exceed £100) were made in open Court, and also applications to pass accounts of executors or administrators. Under the present Act the Registrar grants probate and letters of administration where the estate does not exceed £1,000 in value, it being only necessary to apply in open Court in cases beyond that amount. Estates under £30 in value do not pay any stamp duty.

The figures from the Probate Court and Stamp Duties Department (see Part IV, "Accumulation") relating to transactions in the estates of deceased persons do not agree. The Court returns the gross value of the estates, and includes those estates which, after investigation, are found not to be subject to duty. The number of petitions is also swollen by probates on some estates being taken out a second time. The amount given by the Stamp Duties Department represents the net value of the estates, and only those estates subject to duty appear in the returns.

No. 55.—SUPREME COURT—Curator of Intestate Estates.

Curator of Intestate Estates.—This officer is appointed by the Supreme Court under Act 54 Vic. No. 25. He is empowered to apply for an order to collect the estate of any deceased person leaving real and personal estate who shall have died intestate, and leaving no widow or next of kin resident within the jurisdiction of the Court, or when the person shall have died testate but leaving no executor, or no executor willing and capable of acting in execution of his will, and in a few other instances. After paying all proved and allowed claims, balances in the hands of the Curator are invested by him either in Government Debentures or at fixed deposit, and if not claimed within six years, are paid over to the Colonial Treasurer for the public service of the Colony. A rightful claimant may afterwards, however, obtain payment thereof, but without interest from the date of payment to the Treasury.

No. 59.—SUPREME COURT—Barristers Practising, 1893-4.

Admission to the Bar. The Board for approval of qualified persons to be admitted as Barristers of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, as required under Act 11 Vic. No. 6, consists of the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Attorney-General, the Crown being and two elected members of the Bar. Applicants must have been articled to a barrister at law for four years (or, if a graduate of two years), and have passed all examinations prescribed by the Board. A person who has practised for at least five years, and who is removed or struck off the roll of solicitors, is entitled under Act No. 31 to be admitted as a barrister without examination. Admission is made in open Court any day in Term (it may be, excepting Legal).

Queen's Counsel. A Queen's Counsel is appointed by Commission signed by the Governor, upon a recommendation by the Attorney-General to the Executive Council. Six barristers held this position during 1893, and a seventh Q.C. was elected for Bathurst in 1894.

Crown Prosecutors. Seven Barristers, who receive an annual salary, hold the appointment of Crown Prosecutors at the Courts of Quarter Sessions. Fifteen others, who are paid by fees, are specially appointed, on the recommendation of the Attorney-General, for each sitting of the Circuit Courts, thirty commissions being issued every year.

No. 60.—SUPREME COURT—Solicitors Practising, 1893-4.

Admission of Solicitors. Persons eligible for admission as solicitors if they have not been admitted in Great Britain, Ireland, or the Colonies must have been articled to some practising solicitor in New South Wales and have served five years, or, if a graduate of Arts, or of a University, three years; clerkship, and must pass the examinations of a Board consisting of two barristers and four solicitors appointed annually by the Supreme Court. A solicitor may be struck off the roll, and the power to give a certificate withdrawn, for twelve months or permanently, by the Court. A barrister, who has been practising for five years, but has not been called to the Bar under Act 11 Vic. No. 31, be admitted as a solicitor without examination. Under the provisions of the same Act a solicitor is entitled to appear, and has the right of audience in all Courts in New South Wales. The Court can also remove from the roll of solicitors any person who, in its opinion, shall have been guilty of misconduct or malpractice.

Notaries Public are appointed by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury. Solicitors are generally appointed to this office, but persons outside that profession are eligible. The chief duties are attesting signatures to powers of attorney (other than [illegible]), and protesting foreign bills, to be sent to England. The number of Notaries Public in New South Wales in 1894 was 70.

Commissioners for Affidavits. The number of Commissioners for taking affidavits, practising during 1893 within the limits of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, was 614.

Certificated Conveyancers. Under the provisions of Act 11 Vic. No. 33, any person not being a barrister or a solicitor, having passed an examination to the Master in Equity, and producing satisfactory proofs as to character, is entitled to a certificate authorising him to draw and prepare any conveyance, will, deed, bond, lease, etc., for hire within the limits of the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

Coroners. Coroners are appointed by the Governor-in-Council. They are empowered, on the requisition of the Minister of Justice, or Sheriff, or Coroners, to inquire, upon view of the body or otherwise, into the cause of death of persons who have died violent or unnatural deaths. They have power to issue warrants for the arrest of bodies and to summon jurors and witnesses. Inquests are held for all persons found dead in the gaols, asylums, etc., and for persons supposed to have died violent or unnatural deaths. They can, when necessary, hold inquests on the bodies of persons who have died outside the State. Coroners are appointed for Sydney and suburbs, for the ports as well as for towns, and for the Country generally. (See also Notes, Part VII., Population and Vital Statistics, and Part X., Miscellaneous.)

No. 61. PATENTS—Applications for Letters Patent and Certificates of Provisional Protection Registered (under Act 51 Vic. No. 3) during 1893

Letters Patent. The first Patent Act (16 Vic. No. 24) was passed in 1852, but did not come into operation until 1st January, 1853. It was amended in 1877 (42 Vic. No. 27) and again in 1887 (51 Vic. No. [illegible]). Under the provisions of the last-named Act a Board of Examiners of Patents was created and fees for complete Letters Patent were reduced, and provision was then made for the issue of Certificates of Provisional Protection on payment of a fee of £2, which application to be made within twelve months from granting, be converted into an application for a Patent on the payment of an additional £5.

Duration and Assignment of Patents. The period for which Letters Patent remain in force varies from seven to fourteen years, payable for the latter period, a Certificate of Provisional Protection can however only be granted for two years from date of issue. A patent granted in New South Wales only protects the holder within the boundaries of that country. Letters Patent and Certificates may be assigned, and the grantee of Letters Patent may sell licenses for the manufacture or use of his invention. All assignments or licenses must be registered in the Patent Office, or they are void and void.

No. 63.—COPYRIGHT.—Registrations effected from 1889 to 1893.

The Copyright Act (41 Vic., No. 20) was passed in May, 1879, and became law on the first of the following July. Under the International Copyright Act, 1886 (49 and 50 Vic., clause 33), the greater part of the body of Imperial Copyright law, together with the Copyright Convention of Berne, is made reciprocally applicable to Great Britain and to the countries that are parties to the Convention with their respective colonies, namely—Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Monaco, Hayti, Belgium, Montenegro, and Tunis, so that it is now possible for Colonial Copyright works, to which the law applies, to receive international protection. The same Act places Colonial Copyright in literary works upon the same footing as Imperial Copyright works, that is to say, a work first published in a Colony is now capable of receiving protection throughout the British dominions. The total registrations under the Act to end of 1893 were 1,811, the receipts amounted to £566, and the disbursements (salaries), £4,445.

Duration of Copyright.—Books, for the natural life of the author and for 7 years after his death, or for 42 years from first publication, whichever period may be the longer; paintings, drawings, sculpture, and engravings, for 14 years; photographs, 5 years; articles composed wholly or chiefly of metal, wood, stone, cement, glass, earthenware, ivory, bone, and similar substances, 5 years; paperhangings, carpets, oilcloths, and all kinds of textile and woven articles, 2 years. To obtain the benefits of the Act every article must bear the word "Registered," together with the name of the proprietor and the date of registration.

No. 64.—The Trades Disputes Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1892 (Act 55 Vic. No. 29).

THIS Act was the outcome of an inquiry into the subject of industrial crises or strikes by a Royal Commission appointed November, 1890. It supplies State machinery for the settlement of industrial disputes upon the basis of conciliation or compromise, in the first instance, and failing that by arbitration. Under this Act the Colony is treated as one Industrial District, and two separate Councils, the Council of Conciliation and the Council of Arbitration, have been appointed, the former consisting of eighteen and the latter of three members, who hold office for a term of two years, but can be reappointed. Nine members of the Council of Conciliation and one member of the Council of Arbitration are elected by the organisations, or a majority of the organisations, representing the interests of employers, and the organisations, or the majority of the organisations, representing the employés, elect a similar number. The President of the Council of Arbitration is appointed by the Governor and Executive Council on the recommendation of the other two members. The members of the Council of Arbitration receive salaries in addition to fees, but the members of the Council of Conciliation are paid by fees only. The Act continues in force for four years from 31st March, 1892, and its regulations are carried out by an officer designated the Clerk of Awards. Both Councils are invested with judicial powers to enforce the attendance of witnesses. Since the Act came into operation, only one case has been brought before the Council of Conciliation, and one case before the Court of Arbitration.

No. 7.—STATE SCHOOLS.—Schools and Departments in operation, 1893.

Schools and Departments, 1893.—The number of schools and departments in operation, 1893, does not correspond with the number open at the close of 1893 (2,437 and 2,660 respectively); 78 new schools were established, 10 schools were re-opened, 70 schools in operation during 1892 do not appear on the list of those open 1893, and 83 of those in operation during 1893 were closed before the last quarter of that year. The classification of a large number of schools was changed. 27 Provisional and 2 Half-time Schools were raised to the rank of Public Schools, whilst 34 Public and 82 Provisional Schools were reduced to Half-time or House-to-house Schools. With few exceptions all Schools below Class IV are "Mixed Schools," the boys, girls, and infants not being separated into different departments.

Superior Public Schools.—To entitle a Public School to be designated a "Superior" Public School at least 20 pupils must be eligible to join a fifth class. At the end of 1893 there were 95 Public Schools of Classes I to V, comprising 241 Departments, classed as "Superior" Public Schools. In these schools instruction is given to the fifth class, in Latin and French and other subjects prescribed for the Senior and Junior Examinations.

Training Schools for Teachers.—There are two Training Schools, Fort-street for males, and Hurlstone for females, the total enrolment for 1893 being 61 and 54 respectively. Those persons who have completed their course as pupil-teachers are alone eligible for admission. The training extends over a period of three years, the senior students attending Sydney University. In addition to lectures on the Science and Practice of Teaching the students are given practical work under supervision in the Practising Schools and Kindergarten Department of the Model Public School, Fort-street. On completion of the course of training each student receives a Classification certificate.

No. 6.—STATE SCHOOLS—Schools, Teachers, Enrolment of Pupils, 1889-93

Primary Schools.—Prior to the passing of the Public Instruction Act (43 Vic. No. 23), which came into force o[n] the 1st January, 1880, the primary schools were controlled by a Church of Education, and two classes of schools were established, viz., those which received aid from the State funds; the buildings belonging t[o] the Church of England and Roman Catholic denominations. This Act provided that State aid to denominational schools should cease at the end of 1882, and that the instruction imparted at Public Schools should be absolutel[y] secular. The word "secular" is defined by the Act as including "general religious teaching as distinguished fro[m] theological or polemical teaching."

Religious Instruction.—Provision is made for the admission to the schools of religious teachers of any denomination t[o] give religious instruction to the pupils belonging to their persuasion at specified hours, and separate class rooms are generall[y] provided for that purpose.

Compulsory Attendance.—Under Clause 27 of the Act it is obligatory upon the parents or guardians of al[l] children between the ages of 7 and 13 years (subject to certain exemptions that can be shown), to cause such children to attend [a] State School not less than 7 days in each calendar

Minimum Age.—In accordance with a Ministerial minute a circular was issued to all Public School teachers, 18th [...] fixing the minimum age at which children could be admitted to these schools at 6 years, excepting those [...] who had already been admitted. The minimum was again reduced to 5 years by another Ministerial minute, September [...] 1876.

School Fees.—Fees at the rate of 6d. per week are charged, the maximum being 1s. for one family. Where [...] unable to pay the fees children are admitted free.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS, 1893.

School Districts.—The Colony is divided into 10 school districts, each being in charge of a District Inspector, wh[o] is assisted by 2 or more Inspectors. Each school is inspected once a year; in many cases a second inspection is made; an[d] the inspections occupy from one day to three weeks, according to the size of the school. The number of Departments given in Table No. 7 is 6 more than shown in the following Table. The 5 High Schools and the Public School at Lord How[e] Island are included in the former, but they do not come within the charge of any District Inspector.

Public School Boards.—As provided by Clause 19 of the Public Instruction Act, 1880, 28 Public School Districts have been gazetted and a School Board appointed to each, consisting of not more than 7 persons. The Board's duties are to [...] select proper teachers for schools placed under its supervision, to suspend a teacher in certain cases, and to report the names of persons [...] who refuse to send their children. At the end of 1893, 47 ladies held seats on these Boards.

Public School Cadet Corps.—In connection with the State Schools, and inclusive of those attached to Roman Catholic Schools within the Metropolis, there were, at the end of 1893, 147 Cadet Corps, with an enrolment of 4,179 cadets, under the control of six officers attached to the Department of Public Instruction. The corps, previously known as Senior Cadets, and comprising infantry, cavalry, artillery, and ambulance corps, were transferred to the Military Department during 1893, and affiliated with certain of the partially paid regiments. The Cadet Vote for 1893 was £3,969, as against £11,818 for 1892, a reduction of more than 50 per cent., so that severe retrenchment had to be exercised, which operated against the Force generally, and no new corps were formed during the year

Penny Savings' Banks.—These are established in connection with the State Schools. At the end of 1893 Savings' Banks were in operation at 629 schools, with an estimated number of 37,000 depositors, having £6,079 to their credit. Deposits as collected are placed in the Post Office Savings' Bank to the credit of the School Bank. As soon as the amount at the credit of an individual depositor reaches £1, a separate account is opened in the child's own name.

Expenditure. The total expenditure during 1893 was £9,046, and the amount of fees received was £6,047, the net cost per head of average attendance being £6 3s. 8d.

University Examinations.—Thirty Sydney Grammar School students passed the Junior and 9 the Senior Examination, of whom 14 and 7 respectively qualified for matriculation; 20 students also matriculated.

No. 12.—UNIVERSITY of Sydney, 1893.

Incorporation and Endowment. The University of Sydney was incorporated 1850, under Act 14 Vic. No. 31), and is empowered to confer, after examination, degrees in arts, law, and medicine, and was endowed with an annual income of £5,000. A Royal charter was issued February, 1858, under which graduates of Sydney rank equally with graduates of British Universities. Since 1882 the Endowment has been supplemented by annual Parliamentary grants, the amount voted for 1894 being £6,000, in addition to grants for special purposes.

University Extension Act, 1884 (47 Vic. No. 17). This Act gives power to the University of Sydney to grant degrees in all branches of knowledge except theology and divinity, and extends all University privileges to women.

Senate. The government of the University is vested in a Senate, consisting of 16 elected and not more than 6 ex officio members, being Professors of the University. The Senate elects from its members a Chancellor, who holds office for three years, and a Vice Chancellor who is elected annually.

Faculties. There are four Faculties—Arts, Law, Medicine, and Science. A Dean is appointed by the Senate to each Faculty from time to time for a term not exceeding two years.

PROFESSORS, STUDENTS, AND DEGREES CONFERRED.

Professorial Board. The Chancellor, Vice Chancellor and Professors, appointed by the University, in the four Faculties, form the Professorial Board, which elects its Chairman annually, and manages and superintends the discipline of all University students, and makes rules and imposes penalties, against which appeal may be made to the Senate. The number of Professors and Lecturers on the University Staff during 1893 was 14 of the former and 34 of the latter; of these, 7 Professors and 6 Lecturers were paid out of the Challis Fund.

Terms, Lectures, and Examinations. The year is divided into three terms—Lent, Trinity and Michaelmas,—during which lectures are delivered and examinations held by examiners appointed from time to time by the Senate.

PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS.

Students. Candidates intending to enter the University are required to pass the Matriculation Examination, which is held in the month of March each year. At these examinations Latin, Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry are compulsory subjects, Greek, French, and German being optional. Any person desirous of attending University lectures may do so without matriculation, upon payment of fees fixed by the Senate.

DEGREES CONFERRED SINCE FOUNDATION.

Degrees. In the Faculty of Arts two degrees are given—B.A. and M.A. The curriculum of study for the former degree extends over a period of three years. The M.A. degree cannot be obtained till two years after the B.A. has been conferred. In the Faculty of Law the degrees of LL.B. and LL.D. are granted. The curriculum of study for the LL.B. degree extends over five years, of which the first two are in the Faculty of Arts. Three degrees are granted in the Faculty of Medicine—M.B., M.D., and Ch.M. The course of study for the degrees of M.B. and Ch.M. extends over a period of five years. In the Faculty of Science the degrees of B.Sc. and D.Sc. are given, the course of study for the former extending over a period of three years. The degrees of B.E. and M.E. are also given in the four branches of Engineering, viz., Civil, Mechanical, Mining, and Electrical Engineering.

Ad Eundem Degrees.—Act 44 Vic. No. 22 empowers the Senate to confer ad eundem degrees on graduates of other recognised Universities holding equivalent degrees.

University Examinations.—Thirty Sydney Grammar School students passed the Junior and 9 the Senior Examination, of whom 14 and 7 respectively qualified for matriculation; 20 students also matriculated.

No. 12. UNIVERSITY of Sydney, 1893.

Incorporation and Endowment The University of Sydney was incorporated 1850 (under Act 14 Vic. No. 31), was empowered to confer, after examination, degrees in arts, law, medicine, and was endowed with a annual income of £5,000. A Royal Charter was issued February, 1858, under which graduates of Sydney rank equally with graduates of British Universities. Since 1887 the Endowment has been supplemented by annual Parliamentary grants, the amount received for 1893 being £9,000, in addition to grants for special purposes.

University Extension Act, 1884 (47 Vic. No. 17).—This Act gives power to the University of Sydney to grant degrees to females in knowledge except theology and divinity, and extends all University privileges to women.

Senate The government of the University is vested in a Senate, consisting of 18 elected members (not more than one-fifth to be officers or Professors of the University). The Senate elects from its members a Chancellor, who holds office for three years, and a Vice-Chancellor who is elected annually.

Faculties There are four Faculties—Arts, Law, Medicine, and Science. A Dean is appointed by the Senate to each Faculty from time to time for a term not exceeding two years.

PROFESSORS, STUDENTS, AND DEGREES CONFERRED.

Professorial Board. The Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and Professors appointed by the University in the four Faculties, form the Professorial Board, which elects its Chairman annually, and has general supervision of the discipline of University students, and makes rules and regulations relating, amongst matters, to appeal may be made to the Senate. The number of Professors and Lecturers on the University staff during 1893 was 14 of the former and 34 of the latter, of these 7 Professors and 10 Lecturers were paid by the Crown (Fisher Bequest).

Terms, Lectures, and Examinations The year is divided into three terms—Lent, Trinity, and Michaelmas, during which lectures are delivered and examinations held by examiners appointed from time to time by the Senate.

PROFESSORS AND STUDENTS.

Students. Candidates intending to enter the University are required to pass the Matriculation Examination, which is held in the month of March each year. At these examinations Latin, Arithmetic, Algebra, and Geometry are compulsory subjects; Greek, French, and German being optional. Any person desirous of attending University lectures may do so without matriculation, upon payment of fees fixed by the Senate.

DEGREES CONFERRED SINCE FOUNDATION.

Degrees. In the Faculty of Arts two degrees are given—B.A. and M.A. The curriculum of study for the former degree extends over a period of three years. The M.A. degree cannot be obtained till two years after the B.A. has been conferred. In the Faculty of Law the degrees of LL.B. and LL.D. are granted. The course of study for the LL.B. degree extends over five years, of which the first two are in the Faculty of Arts. Three degrees are granted in the Faculty of Medicine—M.B., M.D., and C.M. The course of study for the degrees of M.B. and Ch.M. extends over a period of five years. In the Faculty of Science the degrees of B.Sc. and D.Sc. are given, the course of study for the former extending over a period of three years. The degrees of B.E. and M.E. are also given in the four branches of Engineering, viz., Civil, Mechanical, Mining, and Electrical Engineering.

Ad Eundem Degrees.—Act 44 Vic. No. 22 empowers the Senate to confer ad eundem degrees on graduates of other recognised Universities holding equivalent degrees.

No. 14.—UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY. Bursaries, 1893.

Bursaries. Bursaries are only conferred when satisfactory proof is produced that the means of the candidate, or of his parents or guardians, are insufficient to enable him to attend the University without such assistance. There are fourteen Bursaries at the disposal of the University. These have all been created by the initiation of the late Dr. Badham, when Professor of Classical Literature, at an annual cost of £1,400 in all, together with land, or money in lieu thereof, sufficient to produce prescribed annual sums varying from £40 to £60. They are held, on the part of the Senate, by an accompanying exemption from lecture fees for four years' attendance. Women are eligible for not more than one half of the five Bursaries, founded in 1881 by Mr. Thomas Walker. Tenable 4 years, 1 in each.

Public School Bursaries. Thirty other bursaries have been created by the Government in connection with the Public School system, but the University is not concerned in their award, although the Senate has conceded to the holders a similar exemption from fees.

These amounts run at £[illegible] to £778, when the sum of £1,500 shall have been reached. No. 3 Bursary, with a capital fund of £1,000, will become operative, and the balance of £500 will accumulate to No. 4.

University Prizes.

Exhibitions of the value up to £20 each are given annually by the University to students who rank at the greatest proficiency at the various Examinations, and to the most distinguished candidates in the Honour Examinations for different degrees.

Private Prizes.

Prizes for proficiency in different subjects are awarded annually, ranging in value from £2 2s. to £10, by the various Faculties.

Military Cadetship.

In 1889 the Imperial Military authorities conferred upon the Senate the privilege of nominating one student per annum for a Cadetship at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst. Students who have completed their first year and passed the First Examinations are eligible. The limits of age are: For students, 17 to 21; for graduates 17 to 22.

Military Commissions.

Two commissions in the British Army are granted to the Sydney and other Australian Universities under certain conditions.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE, 1888-93.

Finance. The supervision of the financial affairs of the University are, subject to the direction and control of the Senate, entrusted to a Finance Committee consisting of the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and four elected Fellows.

No. 17.—TECHNICAL EDUCATION.—Subjects Taught, 1893.

nical Education. Classes were first established at the Sydney Mechanics' School of Arts in 1873. In 1878 a ,000 was granted by Parliament for the organisation of the Technical College, and for five years the classes were at the post tutors named. In 1883 a board was appointed by Government to take over the management but the end of 1889 the Board was dissolved and the Technical Colleges were placed under the control of the Minister nstruction. In January, 1892, the new Technical College at Ultimo was opened to students.

Nautical School Ship "Sobraon."—In this Institution 448 boys were enrolled during 1893, 240 of these being under 14 years, and 208 over that age, the number remaining at the end of the year being 303. The total expenditure was £8,544 0s., made up as follows, viz.—Maintenance, £6,750 0s. and salaries, £1,794. The amount of parents' contributions to the Treasury was £295 5s., so that the net cost to the State was £8,249 15s., or £18 8s. 3d. per head of enrolment.

Industrial School for Girls, Parramatta.—The number of girls enrolled during 1893 was 174, of whom 68 were under and 106 above the age of 14 years, and the number remaining at the end of the year was 103. The expenditure amounted to £2 17s. 12s. 5d. or £16 4s. 11d. per head of enrolment.

Shaftesbury Reformatory for Girls.—The number of inmates at the close of 1893 was 92. This Institution has now been placed under the control of the Director of Charitable Institutions.

Boys' Reformatory, Field of Mars.—This Institution was established during 1894, under the title of the "Carpenterian Reformatory."

New South Wales Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.—The number of inmates remaining on the 31st December 1893, was 60, viz., 35 males and 31 females. The total revenue was £4,561, of which £450 was received from the State. The expenditure was £4,001.

Society for Relief of Destitute Children, Randwick.—At the end of 1893, 172 children were attending School, the instruction being imparted by 5 teachers. The receipts and expenditure during the year were £3,447 and £3,391 respectively.

Ragged Schools.—The 4 Ragged Schools in operation, viz., Harrington-street and Brisbane-street, Sydney, and Waterloo and Glebe are supported entirely by private subscriptions. Eight teachers are connected with the Institutions, and 467 scholars are being educated free of charge.

No. 20.—NATIONAL ART GALLERY—Receipts and Expenditure, Attendance of Visitors, and List of Presentations, during 1893.

National Art Gallery.—The National Art Gallery of N.S.W. was first opened in June, 1876, in conjunction with the New South Wales Academy of Art; re-opened as a National Gallery on 22nd September, 1880, in temporary buildings in the Botanical Gardens; removed to present premises in Inner Domain on 23rd December, 1885. The estimated value of the collection is between £90,000 and £100,000.

Art Students.—Persons desirous of studying in the Art Gallery must make application, accompanied by a specimen of work. If satisfactory, a card of admission will be granted to the applicant, revocable at the pleasure of the Trustees. No picture shall be copied in its entirety without special permission, and such studies only shall be made as shall be approved by the Director. All studies must be stamped before being taken from the Art Gallery. Loan pictures are not to be copied without the permission of the owners. Since the year 1880, when permission was first granted, 182 art students have availed themselves of the opportunity of studying in the Art Gallery.

Exchange of Pictures.—With a view to the artists of New South Wales being represented, a few pictures were lent for exhibition at the Chicago World's Fair, and the practice has now been established of loan exchanges between the Art Galleries of some of the Colonies of Australasia.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

Jurisdiction. The first clergyman of the Church of England arrived in Sydney with the "First Fleet" in 1788. In 1836 the Archdeacon of Australia was appointed to act under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Calcutta. The first Bishop of Australia was consecrated in 1836, and the area of diocese included Tasmania and New Zealand. In 1847 the Province of New South Wales was formed, and the title of Metropolitan was conferred on the Bishop of Sydney, who in 1872 was made Primate of the Dioceses of Australia and Tasmania.

Ecclesiastical Divisions. The clergy resident in certain defined districts of each diocese are united for various purposes into Archidiaconal Districts and Rural Deaneries, presided over by an Archdeacon and a Rural Dean respectively, who are appointed by and derive their authority from the Bishop of the diocese.

Diocesan Synods. In 1866 a conference of Bishops of the Dioceses in New South Wales, together with Clerical and Lay representatives from each Diocese, was held for the purpose of drawing up Constitutions for the management and government of the Church and its legislative sanction having been obtained, the Bishop of Sydney summoned the first Synod of the Province to meet in December the same year. Synods, at least annually in each Diocese, exist for the transaction of business. Each clergyman is entitled to a separate vote of seat in the Synod, and each parish is entitled to two votes, one of which is given to the Incumbent, and the other to the Churchwardens, or to a majority of more than 50 persons attending and voting, three Lay Representatives. The Bishop of the Diocese, or in his absence the Commissary appointed by him, is President ex officio, and the Rules and Practice of the Legislative Council as far as they can be applied are observed.

Provincial and General Synods. Each Diocesan Synod elects from its members an equal number of Clerical and Lay members to the Provincial Synod of New South Wales, which meets once in three years, and also Clerical and Lay representatives to the General Synod of the Dioceses of Australia and Tasmania, which meets once in five years under the presidency of the Bishop of Sydney as Primate.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Church of England Property Incorporation Act, 1881 (45 Vic.)—This Act provides for the creation of corporate bodies of Trustees in which property belonging to the Church of England may be vested. Under this Act Church of England Property Trusts for different Dioceses have been established or are entitled to hold, on behalf of the Church, all real and personal property which may be assigned to it by grant, will, or otherwise.

Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887 (50 Vic.)—Under this Act the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney is empowered by rule or ordinance to direct the sale or lease of any lands, churches, schools, or other buildings where it has become impossible or inexpedient to carry out the particular purpose for which they were by consecration or express trust devoted.

Church of England Property Act, 1889 (52 Vic.)—Applies to the Colony generally, and gives power to the Synod of each Diocese to effect mortgages of lands and buildings, other than consecrated churches, for the purpose of obtaining money for giving effect to the trusts attached to the same, and to let lands, &c., on building, mining, or occupation leases for the purpose of obtaining income therefrom.

Moore Theological College. This college was founded in 1856. It was originally carried on at Liverpool but in 1889 it was decided to transfer the college to Sydney. New buildings, erected close to St. Paul's (affiliated) College and the University, were opened August, 1891. The course of study extends over two years, except for University graduates from whom one year's residence is required. Married students are permitted to be non-resident. A certificate is granted on passing the final examination satisfactorily. Intending students must produce testimonials of fitness from two Clergymen or certificate from a Bishop stating his willingness to receive him as a candidate for Holy Orders.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Jurisdiction - The Roman Catholic population of Australia was, until 1834, under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Mauritius, but in that year Sydney was constituted a See, which included within its jurisdiction the whole of Australia and Tasmania, and the Bishop of which bore the title of Vicar Apostolic of New Holland. In 1842 Pope Gregory XVI gave a canonical form to Church government by establishing a Hierarchy, raising the Vicar Apostolic to the rank of Archbishop, with Bishops of Hobart and Adelaide as Suffragans. The Colony of New South Wales forms the Province of Sydney, which has been from time to time subdivided and now comprises an Archdiocese and six Dioceses. In 1885 the occupant of the Archiepiscopal See was created a Cardinal. He is assisted by a Bishop Auxiliary.

SALVATION ARMY.

Organisation. The Salvation Army was established in Australia in 1882. Melbourne was made the chief Centre, Victoria was placed under the command of a Commissioner, and Sydney was constituted the headquarters for New South Wales, with a separate chief officer who is Lieutenant-Colonel in command all officers and soldiers bearing military titles and ranks. The Australasian ranks are Commissioner, Colonel, Brigadier, Major, Staff Captain, Captain, Lieutenant, and Cadet. The rank and file consist of Sergeant-Majors, Sergeants and Soldiers. There are also Treasurers and Secretaries to Corps. Persons who are in sympathy with the Salvation Army, but who have not subscribed to the "Articles of War" are enrolled as Comrades and Friends, and take a pledge against the use of tobacco, opium and intoxicating drugs (except as ordered by a Doctor), and contribute to the funds of the Army. Persons desirous of membership are publicly received, after three months probation, and on subscription to the "Articles of War," and are then attached to the corps nearest their place of abode.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.

Constitution.—A separate and independent constitution was given to the Wesleyan Methodists in Australia in 1855 by the English Conference, which derives its constitution from a Deed Poll of 28th February, 1784, executed and enrolled in the High Court of Chancery in England.

Annual and General Conferences. The government of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales is vested in the Annual Conference of clerical and lay representatives under the chairmanship of a President elected from the members. Representatives are appointed from the Annual Conference to the General Conference, which assembles once in three years or at other intervals as may be arranged. The subject of the organic union of the Methodist Churches of Australia has received the consideration of the Conference. At the General Conference held at Adelaide in May, 1888, resolutions were passed reaffirming the desirableness of union with other branches of Methodism separated at present by differences in ecclesiastical order, and for the establishment of a Federal Council of Methodist Churches as a step to organic union.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

Organisation.—The Union of Congregational Churches allows every separate church to exercise perfect independence in the government and administration of its own particular affairs, and therefore does not assume legislative authority, nor has a Court of Appeal. Each Congregational Church is represented at the General Assembly by its pastor and two lay delegates, and is entitled to the number of its members, two delegates being allowed for fifty members or under, and additional delegate for every additional twenty members. The Committee of the College or Society recognised Congregational Union, being expressly empowered, appoints two delegates. The Chairman and Committee are elected by ballot at each annual Session of the Union, the first of which was held in 1866.

SECTION III.—MEDICINE AND HOSPITALS.

(Pages 657 to 674.)

No. 38.—LEGALLY QUALIFIED MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS, 1893.

New South Wales Medical Board. Under Act 2 Vic. No 22, "The New South Wales Medical Board" was pointed. The Act provides that it must consist of not less than three members, who must be members of the medical ofession, one of whom shall be nominated President, together with a Secretary. The members of the Board receive no , and are removable by the Executive Council. The Secretary receives an honorarium of £100 per annum. In 1893 the ard consisted of ten members, exclusive of the President and Secretary.

Qualified Medical Practitioners. By the Medical Practitioners Act, 1855 (19 Vic. No 17), a legally qualified ctitioner is defined to be "any person who shall prove to the satisfaction of the New South Wales Medical Board, or a rority (three members) that he has passed through a regular course of medical study, of not less than three years duration, a School of Medicine, and that he has received, after due examination, from the University of Sydney or from some niversity, College, or other body, duly recognised for that purpose in the country to which such University, College, or her body may belong, a diploma, degree, or license entitling him to practise medicine in that country."

Registration. The Register was first opened in the year 1838, and up to September, 1894, 1,011 persons have been gistered. A candidate for registration by the Medical Board must attend in person and furnish a copy of his photograph, ested by his signature for future identification. The names of medical practitioners so registered are published monthly the Government Gazette, and a complete list of those on the Register at the end of each year is issued during the month January following. Medical practitioners already on the Register can have any additional qualifications they may obtain corded on the official list.

SECTION III.—MEDICINE AND HOSPITALS.

(Pages 657 to 674.)

No. 38.—LEGALLY QUALIFIED MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS, 1893.

New South Wales Medical Board. Under Act 2 Vic No. 22, "The New South Wales Medical Board" was appointed. The Act provides that it must consist of not less than three members, who must be members of the medical profession, one of whom shall be nominated President, together with a Secretary. The members of the Board receive no fees, and are removable by the Executive Council. The Secretary receives an honorarium of £100 per annum. In 1893 the Board consisted of two members, exclusive of the President and Secretary.

Qualified Medical Practitioners. By the Medical Practitioners Act, 1855 (19 Vic No. 17) a legally qualified practitioner is defined to be "any person who shall prove to the satisfaction of the New South Wales Medical Board, or a quorum (three members) that he has passed through a regular course of medical study, of not less than three years duration, in a School of Medicine, and that he has received, after due examination, from the University of Sydney, or from some University, College, or other body, duly recognised for that purpose in the country to which such University, College, or other body may belong, a diploma, degree, or license, entitling him to practise medicine in that country."

Registration. The Register was first opened in the year 1858, and up to September, 1894, 1,611 persons have been registered. A candidate for registration by the Medical Board must attend in person and furnish a copy of his photograph, attested by his signature, for future identification. The names of medical practitioners so registered are published monthly in the Government Gazette, and a complete list of those on the Register at the end of each year is issued during the month of January following. Medical practitioners already on the Register can have any additional qualifications they may obtain recorded on the official list.

Coast Hospital. No additional probationers will be received at this Hospital. All vacancies occurring will be filled by appointing nurses holding certificates of competency, or by the promotion of present probationers who may pass a test examination satisfactorily.

Certificates of Competency.—These are granted to nurses after three years' training, on passing satisfactory oral and written examinations, by the medical staff of the different hospitals.

Certificates in Midwifery.—The medical officers attached to the Benevolent Asylum grant certificates in midwifery to trained nurses after having undergone, to their satisfaction, a six months' course of instruction at that institution.

Average cost per Bed and per Patient.—As the expenditure of Hospitals in nearly every instance [illegible] of a distinction being made between the amount expended on indoor and that on outdoor relief, it has been found impossible to establish a return showing the average yearly cost per bed and per patient.

No. 45.—HOSPITALS. Revenue and Expenditure, 1893.

Endowment to Hospitals. Although there is no statutory provision as to payments being made by Government to private hospitals, the amount of subsidy annually paid has been at the rate of £1 for every like amount received by way of subscriptions. By Act 56 Vic No 19, passed in 1880, provision was made for the inspection of Hospitals and other benefit societies by Government in order to ensure the proper application of grants. Trustees of Hospitals are permitted under Act 44 Vic No 5, 1881 to invest the funds in various securities not set out in the Statute. At meetings held for the election of Officers, annual subscribers of £1 or those who have paid £10 are entitled to vote.

Hospital Saturday. On 30th April, 1894, subscriptions for metropolitan hospitals were obtained in daily homes by collectors from the public by door-to-door canvass. A sum of £1,870 was collected and distributed amongst the various hospitals. It was decided that the Hospital Saturday shall be an annual institution.

Hospital Sunday. The Metropolitan Friendly Societies, Fire Brigades, and other bodies, as well as those formed in the suburban and country districts, organise processions in their respective localities each year for the purpose of parading the streets and collecting subscriptions from the public for the benefit of the local hospitals. The amounts thus collected in the Metropolis during 1892, '93 and '94 were £202, £191, and £204 respectively.

Endowment to Hospitals.—Although there is no statutory provision as to payments being made by Government to hospitals, the amount of subsidy annually paid has been at the rate of £1 for every like amount received by private ption. By Act 30 Vic. No. 19, passed in 1866, provision was made for the inspection of Hospitals and other Institu- ded by Government in order to ensure the proper application of grants. Trustees of Hospitals are permitted, under Vic. No. 3, 1881, to invest the funds in various securities mentioned in the Statute. At meetings held for the election ers, annual subscribers of £1 or those who have paid £10 in one sum to the funds of the Hospital are entitled to votes.

Hospital Saturday.—On 30th April, 1894, subscriptions for metropolitan hospitals were obtained by lady honorary rs from the public by outdoor canvass. A sum of £1,676 was collected and distributed amongst the various hospitals. ended that the Hospital Saturday shall be an annual institution.

Hospital Sunday.—The Metropolitan Friendly Societies, fire brigades, and other bodies, as well as those of some of urban and country districts, organise processions in their respective localities each year for the purpose of parading ets and collecting subscriptions from the public for the benefit of the local hospitals. The amounts thus collected in ropolis during 1892, '93, and '94 were £202, £191, and £264 respectively.

49. HOSPITALS FOR INSANE—Government Institutions—Number of Patients—Gross and Net Expenditure—1893.

The Lunacy Act, 1879 (Act 43 Vic. No. 7), as amended in 1883 by Act 50 Vic. No. 23, provides for the proclamation of Government hospitals for the insane and for the granting of licenses for private houses for the reception of the insane. In that which it provides for hospitals for the criminal insane has been established.

Admission of Patients. Under the provisions of the 9th section of the Lunacy Act Further Amendment Act, 1893 (57 Vic. No. 30), the order, request, medical certificate, and collateral documents by which an insane person has been received as a hospital for the insane may be examined under process much more simple than was provided for by the original Act. All so that it is not now necessary to reject the documents and delay the admission of the patient.

Influx of Insane Persons. For many years there has been an influx to the Australasian Provinces of persons who were sent out or arrived in the Colony by sea, or became insane shortly afterwards, and this influx has of late years been due to a series of enactments in the neighbouring colonies which prevented the landing of such cases thereon. Act 56 Vic. No. 28, section 4, renders the owner, charterer, agent, or master liable for the maintenance of any insane person landed in Colonies. Under its provisions 10 cases were reported between the time it came into force (June 1st) and the end of 1893. Of these 7 soon recovered and were discharged, 2 were returned by the steamship companies to the ports from which they were shipped, and 1 remained in hospital at the charge of the owners of the ship in which he arrived.

Other Payments. £1,546 were also paid during 1893 for the maintenance of patients in the Reception House, and £2,252 for general expenses, including cost of Inspector-General's Office, payments to Official Visitors, &c., making a total expenditure of £101 07.

Patients from Broken Hill. Owing to the difficulty and expense of sending insane patients from Broken Hill to hospital under proper escort, a small building is in course of erection there, in connection with the General Hospital, for the temporary reception and treatment of insane patients until they can be sent to Gladesville.

Leprosy. The Leprosy Act of 1890 (54 Vic. No. 20) confers powers the Board of Health to detain and isolate persons from leprosy and in accordance with the Act a place has been set apart at Little Bay, and proclaimed as a Lazaret, reception and treatment. On the 1st January, 1894, there were 30 persons—21 males and 5 females—in the Lazaret. All of the patients are attended to by a wardsman in charge, 2 male attendants, and 2 female nurses, under the direction of the Medical Superintendent and Matron of the Coast Hospital.

Outdoor Relief.—The figures regarding outdoor relief shown in this table include instances in which shelter has been afforded for a single night only. In other cases the return has been framed of the number of families that were relieved each month in the year, in addition to which in some cases the railway and steamer fares of destitute persons have been paid in order to enable them to join their friends. On account of the impossibility of separating all duplicates of aided by charitable institutions, it is difficult to compile a return embracing all the persons relieved, but information under this head will be found in Table No. 63.

Other Charitable Societies.—In addition to those named in the above table, there are others of less public importance which have been established in order to relieve distressed persons living in the localities in which the societies exist. No returns are available.

Government Labour Bureau Relieving Branch.—For information regarding the transactions of the Relieving Branch of the Bureau, see Table No. 69.

Other Charities.—In addition to the information given in these Notes, further particulars may be obtained in the preceding pages.

Benevolent Society of New South Wales.

The objects of this Society are to relieve the poor, the distressed, and the aged, by affording them assistance in the form of provisions, &c., and small sums of money to assist in the payment of rent; to provide an Asylum for homeless and destitute Orphans and Foundlings and for children awaiting removal to other Asylums; to receive sick, infirm and aged persons who may be discharged from the Infirmary or other hospitals or who may be suffering from the diseases of old age. The Society possesses a Lying-in Hospital and a training institution for midwives and nurses. The cost of premises purchased during the year 1893 was £2,900 and money for rent was distributed to the amount of £2,278. The provisions issued during 1893 were: bread, 150,664 loaves; flour, 77,149 lb.; meat, 93,693 lb.; sugar, 5,289 lb.; tea, 8,739 lb.; sago, 3,000 lb.; rice, 2,171 lb.; arrowroot, 61 lb.; oatmeal, 3,008 lb.; blankets, 48 pairs; boots, 448 pairs; calico, 309 yards; flannel, 19 yards; flannel, 3 yards; raisins and currants, 1,274 lb. (special Christmas Gift).

Home Visiting and Relief Society.

The object of this society is to visit at their own homes such of the distressed inhabitants of Sydney as belong to the Educated Classes, and have seen better days but have been reduced by poverty, and to afford them such relief as their circumstances need, so and them in their efforts to gain their own subsistence.

There were 66 persons to whom loans were granted during 1893. The total amount advanced being £228. Repayments on account of loans made at various dates were received to the value of £54.

New South Wales Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

This institution founded in 1860, is situated on 5 acres of land on the Newtown Road. The foundation stone of the present building was laid in 1870, and in 1871 was opened the following year. It has been recently completed. The school has two sides, one for the blind and one for the deaf and dumb. Children between the ages of 7 and 12 preferred, they are found to attend are admitted from any part of New South Wales, and under certain conditions from Queensland and Tasmania. The fees charged for board, education, &c., are £40 per annum; in special cases a lower scale of fees is adopted; in cases of inability to pay, children are admitted free. The term of residence varies from 2 to 10 years. In addition to the usual educational course, the girls are taught cooking, household duties, needlework, &c., the deaf boys carpentry and modelling, and the blind children basket making and chair caning. The Braille system is used for teaching music and reading to the blind, and in the articulation classes the dumb have made satisfactory progress.

Home Teaching Society for the Blind.

There are two departments of this Society, the Home Teaching and the Industrial Home and Retreat. The operations of the former include the imparting of instruction in reading, music, chair-caning, and other handicraft work, to blind persons at their own homes; visiting country districts for the purpose of ascertaining fresh cases of blindness, and distributing books for their use. The Home and Retreat Department affords a permanent home for indigent blind females, who are taught various pursuits.

Charity Organization and Relief Society.

The cases in which relief was afforded by this Society during the year 1893 included 1,006 married persons, 549 widows, 118 deserted women, 13 single women, and 753 single men, making a total of 3,339 persons.

Queen's Jubilee Fund.

This Fund was inaugurated during the year 1887, and has for its object the relief of distressed women in New South Wales. The endowment account of the fund on the 31st December, 1893, amounted to £17,580. The sum of £918 was expended during 1893. Of this amount £834 was spent in relieving 272 women, of whom 190 were widows, 53 were married, and 31 were single.

Sydney City Mission.

To visit the poor in their homes, to administer to their spiritual and temporal wants, and to hold open air services, were the objects for which in 1862 the Sydney City Mission was established. During 1893 11 missionaries were employed, 32,157 visits were made, 651 sick persons were provided with medical attendance and comforts, and 6,702 families were furnished with food and clothing, 2,343 open-air services, with an average attendance of 25,000, were held, and the Dorcas Society attached to the Mission numbered 23 members.

City Night Refuge and Soup Kitchen.

Shelter has been afforded to 25,446 persons, and 52,818 meals have been given, being a daily average of 145 for meals, and 70 for shelter. Soup and food have also been supplied to women and children for consumption at their own homes. The free registry office in connection with the institution has found employment for 41 persons.

Sydney Night Refuge and Reformatory.

This institution has been made use of by 2,470 men, and beds have been supplied in 13,051 cases. In addition to the shelter provided at night, each man receives a breakfast.

Sydney Rescue Work Society.

Home of Hope.—Applications during the year numbered 230, of which 49 were maternity cases.

Open All Night Refuge.—The average number daily provided with shelter during the year was 37 women and 21 children.

Women's Crusade Branch.—Each Sunday morning and on Good Friday and Christmas Day, the several city and suburban police stations have been visited, and provisions given during the year to 935 women and 2,160 men. In answer to appeals made on behalf of women charged with vagrancy, Magistrates have in many instances handed them over for admission to the Home of Hope.

Boys Brigade, Sydney.

Night shelter has been provided in this institution to more than 50 lads, the total number of beds used being 700.

Meals and clothing have been given to about 50 destitute and neglected boys, and employment has been found for a considerable number of those belonging to the Brigade.

A Penny Savings Bank was open for the use of members throughout the year.

Ragged Schools.

Four Ragged Schools are situated within the Metropolitan area, two being in Sydney, one at Glebe and one at Waterloo.

There are eight teachers engaged in the work, and 467 children are on the roll. No fees or charges of any kind are made, the purpose of the schools being to provide free education and training to very poor and neglected children. No pecuniary assistance is received from the Government.

No. 66.—CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.—Objects and Transactions—continued.

Children's Home, Ashfield.

This Home was established in March, 1893, but its operations have been restricted. The inmates are separated into ordinary and hospital patients.

Echo Home.

In 1892 the "Echo Farm Home" was founded at Middle Harbour, Sydney, as a home for Inebriates and opened, under the auspices of the Local Option League and Ministers of various denominations, on 21st July of that year. Men of all creeds, who desire to restrain and reform their habits of drunkenness are eligible for admission. There is accommodation for 22 persons including the manager. 62 have been received since the Home was opened, and the average duration of residence has been 80 days. The name of the institution was recently changed to "The Echo Home."

Church Home for the Intemperate and Fallen.

Founded, under the auspices of the Church of England Temperance Society, in 1884, and originally located in a house at Surry Hills, Sydney, this Home was removed during 1893 to more suitable premises at Paddington. Persons are received from the police courts and gaols, some seek admission of their own accord, and not a few are recommended for admission by the clergy. Situations are found for some, others are restored to their friends.

Labour Home.

This institution was founded on the 1st July, 1891, with a view of discouraging begging and also to help respectable men who are out of employment to obtain food and temporary shelter in return for a certain amount of work performed. The committee of the Home considers that by the system employed the management of the institution assistance is given to men to help themselves without in any way lowering their sense of self respect. The ruling principle sought to be maintained in the business of sawing and chopping firewood, caning chairs, and making lead mats, which are carried on by this institution. In connection with the Labour Home there is a farm at Rooty Hill containing 100 acres, obtained on a five years' lease with the right of purchase.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Particular Council of Sydney of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul includes 25 Conferences and is affiliated to the Council General at Paris. During 1893 14,858 persons were visited in their own homes; groceries and other provisions to the value of £1,531 and clothing, bedding, and medicine were given to the poor, many of whom were assisted to start in business or to obtain employment. The St. Aloysius Home at Five Dock for the relief of poor and destitute boys is assisted materially by the Society and mission work has been commenced amongst the sailors visiting Sydney, who are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Salvation Army Social Institutions.

The Social Work of the Salvation Army in New South Wales includes the management of three institutions—two, the Globe Rescue Home and Newtown Maternity Home being for women, and the Prison Gate Brigade Home situated at St. Peters for men. The officers of the Salvation Army attend the police courts, Sydney and the gates of the gaol with a view to giving advice or assistance to persons wishing to lead better lives. The report for the year ending 30th June, 1894, states that 145 persons were sent to situations, 44 were restored to friends, 37 to hospitals and asylums, 24 to Wimbledon Farm and other Homes, and 13 were assisted to go to the country. The number remaining in the Homes on the 30th June was 62. Beds were supplied in 22,844 cases and 69,129 meals were given.

Sir Moses Montefiore Jewish Home.

This Home provides a permanent habitation for many aged persons of the Hebrew faith and constantly affords a temporary shelter for several whose circumstances require it. During the year loans to the amount of £127 were granted and £180 were repaid.

Institutions under Religious Denominations.

In addition to the institutions mentioned in these notes and also those from which statistics have been obtained and inserted in the tables given on the preceding pages, there are many Charitable Institutions connected with the various religious bodies, the doors of which are open to admit persons of any creed.

Shaftesbury Reformatory for Girls.

The management of this Institution, formerly in the hands of the Comptroller-General of Prisons, has been transferred to the Department of Charitable Institutions, and at present is supervised by the State Children's Relief Board.

Nautical School Ship "Sobraon."

In addition to being used as a training school the "Sobraon" acts as a reformatory for boys. Although every boy committed is under control until he is 18 years of age he does not necessarily remain on the ship but may be apprenticed.

In April, 1894, there were 400 apprentices under the guardianship of the Commander and Superintendent. The Institution is administered by the Department of Public Instruction.

Industrial School for Girls, Parramatta.

This Industrial School and Reformatory is under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction. The girls remain in the institution until 18 years of age unless apprenticed before that time. Fifteen were apprenticed during 1893. The value of work performed by inmates during the year has been estimated at £1,890.

National Shipwreck Relief Society.

For information relating to the objects of this Society and its transactions, see Table 26, Part I., Shipping.

Aborigines Protection Board.

The Board appointed by the Government for the protection of the Aborigines of New South Wales consists of eight members. During 1893 a total sum of £10,204 was expended, and on the 31st December last, 1,614 aborigines, including 727 children, were being supported, and Aboriginal children, numbering 649, were receiving instruction at the various stations. There are ninety four reserves for the use of aborigines, in various parts of the Colony, the total area being 25,804 acres.

Animals Protection Society.

This Society was established in 1873 for the purpose of preventing, by every legitimate means, cruelty to animals. The last Annual Report directs special attention to the clause in Act 14 Vic. No. 40, which provides for the apprehension of offenders. "When and so often as any of the offences against the provisions of this Act shall happen, it shall and may be lawful for any constable, upon his own view the same, or upon the complaint and information of any other person, who shall declare his or her name and place of abode to such constable, to seize and secure by the authority of this Act, any such offender, and forthwith, and without any other authority or warrant, to convey such offender before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with by such Justice for such offence according to law." During the year ending 30th June, 1893, the two Inspectors have prosecuted 174 persons obtained 146 convictions, and cautions have been given by them on account of minor offences in 371 instances. The receipts of the Society for the year amounted to £687, and expenditure to £669.

No. 2.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Capital Value of all Ratable Property, &c., 1893-4—continued.

Assessment—General and Special Rates, Suburban and Country Municipalities.—Under the 164th clause of the Municipalities Act of 1867 rates are struck on nine-tenths of the fair average annual rental of all buildings and cultivated lands, and on 5 per cent. of the capital value of the fee simple of unimproved lands. The general and special rates, taken together, for any municipality must not exceed 2s. in the £ of the assessment of the ratable property. The 2s. limit has been exceeded by some municipalities constructing works under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act which empowers the local authorities to strike a special rate for the service outside the provisions of the Municipal Act. Each of the suburban and country municipalities makes an annual assessment, and Courts of Appeal are held each year.

Amount of Rate Struck.—The City rate is the only one levied by the Municipal Council of Sydney, the general expenditure, including that for lighting, being borne from the collections therefrom. The rate varies according to the financial requirements of the Council, being, as previously mentioned, 18d. in the £ on nine-tenths of the annual value of improved property in 1890, and 16d. since that date. The general rate levied by suburban and country municipalities (except Cobar and Cudal) on improved property is 5 per cent. on nine-tenths of annual value, and on unimproved property is 5 per cent. on 5 per cent. of the capital value.

Broken Hill and other Mining Municipalities. The capital value of ratable property in Broken Hill and other mining municipalities is exclusive of that of the mines, estimated at several millions, which, under the terms of the Municipal Act, are exempt from taxation, although building and surface areas are taxed.

Water Supply.—For particulars of works constructed under Country Towns Water and Sewerage Acts see page 714.

Sewerage. The dry-earth closet system is adopted in some Country Municipalities where there is no underground drainage, and also in the Suburban Municipalities to which the Metropolitan system has not been extended. For the earth-closet system no rate is struck, but a weekly or annual charge is made for the service rendered. No rate for this service is shown under "other special rates" in this Table, but the amounts collected have been included under the heading of "Rates on Revenue" in Table No. 2. For the Water and Sewerage services under the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, rates on a graduated scale are levied on the basis of the annual assessments of the Municipalities. The Board administers the only comprehensive system of sewerage existing in the Colony.

Lighting.—Lighting rates are imposed under the 165th clause of the Municipalities Act. No lighting rates are levied by the Municipal Council of Sydney.

No. 6.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Outstanding Loans of Municipalities, 1893-4.

(Municipalities omitted from the Table have no outstanding Loans.)

Suburban and Country Municipal Loans.—Under the Municipalities Act of 1867, any Municipality may borrow on the credit of any land, personal estate, or annual revenue, actual or prospective, belonging to the body corporate. The total sum, however, is not to exceed the estimated Municipal Revenue for five years.

Municipal Loan Act of 1888 (52 Vic. No. 9).—During July, 1888, an Act was passed for the purpose of enabling Councils to borrow money upon the security of lands on which Town Halls or Council Chambers are intended to be, or have been, partly or wholly erected, and of the buildings thereon. During June, 1893, a further amending Act was passed (56 Vic No. 32), which empowered the Councils to borrow money for the repayment of Loans. The Act is to be read with the principal Act and any amending Acts.

Amount of Loans raised Locally.—Of the total outstanding indebtedness (£2,522,393), £963,105 was raised in Sydney, and the balance, £1,554,288, in London, of which £1,110,000 was incurred by the Municipal Council of Sydney.

No. 10.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Municipalities—Water Supply Works.

Constructed within Municipalities under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act (44 Vic. No. 14) of 1880.

The Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act (44 Vic. No. 14) was passed in 1880. Under its provisions, municipalities outside the area under the control of the Metropolitan and Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Boards are, under certain conditions, entitled to construct, or have constructed for them by Government, works for water supply and sewerage. The amount expended in construction is advanced by the State, the municipalities being required under the Act to refund the cost by fixed periodical payments. It being found that the municipalities were unable to comply with these provisions The Country Towns and Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Acts Amendment Act of 1894 (57 Vic. No. 19) was passed. Under the amending Act the rate of interest is reduced to 3½ per cent. per annum from dates of disbursement of the expenditure, while the repayment is to be made by equal annual instalments spread over a period not exceeding 100 years. Under special circumstances the Governor is authorised by the Amending Act to grant partial remissions.

The Broken Hill Water Supply Works, Stephen's Creek.—These works were constructed by a private company under The Broken Hill and District Water Supply Act of 1888, and an Amending Act, passed April, 1892, which extended the time allowed for the completion of the work for a period of eighteen months from that date. The works have been finished and are in operation.

SEWERAGE.

Sewerage Works of Metropolitan Municipalities.—The general system of sewerage now being carried out in the Metropolitan area will supersede the isolated systems of the suburban Municipalities, and the works already constructed will eventually form part of the general scheme. The works constructed by the Councils of Sydney, Redfern, and Darlington now form part of the general system.

General Sewerage Systems.—The metropolitan sewerage system is the only comprehensive one in the Colony, as no country municipality has taken advantage of the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act of 1880 to construct works connected with this service.

METROPOLITAN WATER SUPPLY.

Water Supply.—As early as 1850 the City Corporation was empowered to construct water and sewerage works, and in accordance with such authority works for each service were carried out, but on a limited scale. The water supply and sewerage systems adopted by the City Council have been superseded by comprehensive ones for the whole Metropolitan area, and the old works of the City Council, as well as several of the isolated systems in the suburbs now, or eventually, will form part of the respective general schemes. During 1867, a Royal Commission was appointed to investigate and report upon proposals for supplying water to the city and suburbs. Two years later the Commissioners submitted a report recommending the adoption of the "Upper Nepean scheme," which was accepted. The works are being carried out under authority of Act 43 Vic. No. 32, passed in 1880. The first contract in connection with the water supply service was let in November, 1879, and in 1887 the works had so far advanced that the Government passed an Act transferring the control in May, 1888, to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage. The 355·1 miles of water mains already constructed by the City Council were placed under the Board at the same date, and the 70·27 miles of sewerage mains during September, 1889, as will be seen by reference to page 722. The Board was established under Act 43 Vic. No. 32, as amended by 51 Vic. No. 29, and consists of seven members, three of whom are nominated by the Governor, two elected by the City Council, and two by the Suburban and Country Municipalities within the County of Cumberland, which are supplied by water.

Reservoirs, 1893.

The Nepean System.—The source of the supply is the united waters of the Nepean, Cataract, and Cordeaux Rivers. The water is intercepted at a height of 437 feet above the level of the sea, and flows through a series of conduits to Prospect Reservoir, 40 miles from the farthest source of supply, thence to Potts' Hill Balance Reservoir. The water after leaving this reservoir passes through a screening tank, from which it is conveyed by mains to the various reservoirs within the Metropolis.

Outlying Districts supplied by Gravitation.—The districts of Campbelltown, Liverpool, Granville, Auburn, Rookwood, Ashfield, Hurstville, and Kogarah, are supplied direct from the main canal by gravitation, except the higher parts of Ashfield and Kogarah, the former being supplied from a 100,000-gallon tank connected with the Woollahra Reservoir, and the latter from a 20,000-gallon tank at Penshurst.

METROPOLITAN SEWERAGE.

Metropolitan Sewerage. -The original Sewerage Works of Sydney were begun in 1854, and at the date when the works were transferred to the Board the City Council had constructed 70·27 miles of sewerage. From 1875 to 1877 a Royal Commission was appointed to investigate and report upon a comprehensive scheme for the Metropolis, and in the latter year a report was presented which recommended the scheme now being carried out. The first contract in connection with the new Sewerage Works was let in 1880, and in September, 1889, the works then constructed were transferred to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, under authority of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act Amendment Act (53 Vic. No. 16), passed in the same year.

The Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act Extension Act (57 Vic. No. 12).—This Act provides for the administration and construction, by the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, of storm-water drains or sewers on certain areas which may from time to time be proclaimed in the Government Gazette. The boundaries of these areas, however, may be altered if the appeal by the local authorities to the nearest Court of Petty Sessions be sustained. Under clause 3 the Board is empowered to impose special rates, pending the extension of the general sewerage works to the locality.

Length of Sewers. The total length of sewerage under the control of the Board at the end of 1893 was 122·34 miles, of which 70·27 miles were constructed by the City Corporation, 52·46 by the Government, and the balance by the Board. The storm-water drains at the same date measured 9·10 miles, 6·76 miles having been transferred by the Government and 2·34 miles constructed by the Board.

HUNTER DISTRICT WATER SUPPLY.

The Water Supply Works of the Lower Hunter were constructed by the Government under the provisions of the Country Towns Water Supply and Sewerage Act of 1880. The works in July, 1892, were transferred under Act 55 Vic. No. 21 to the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Board. The board consists of seven members, three of whom are nominated by the Government, one by the Municipal Council of Newcastle, one by the Councils of East and West Maitland and Morpeth, and two by the other municipalities within the prescribed area.

The following municipalities are within the area administered by the Board, viz.:—

Repayment of Cost of Permanent and Renewable Works.—Under the 12th clause of Act 55 Vic. No. 21, the Board is required to pay the cost of the permanent works in annual instalments with 4 per cent. interest on the unpaid balance, within a period not exceeding 100 years. In 1894 an Amending Act, 57 Vic. No. 19, was passed, extending the time for repayment of renewable works to a similar period. The annual instalment for the years ending 30th June, 1893 and 1894, was £3,764, as shown above.

No. 20.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT. Boards and Trusts.

CITY OF SYDNEY IMPROVEMENT BOARD, 1893.

This Board was established in 1879. It consists of five members, of whom one at least must be a professional architect, another a practical builder, and another a medical practitioner. The jurisdiction of the Board is confined to the city limits. Under the authority of the Act a City Building Surveyor is appointed by the Sydney Municipal Council, whose duties are to see that the rules and regulations of the Act are truly observed. Power is given to the Board to adjudicate upon appeals made by any person who is dissatisfied with the proceedings or decisions of any officer employed to carry out the provisions of the Act. The Act has, however, been practically inoperative and no work was performed by the Board during 1893. The Board alleges that the Act is defective, and recommends the passing of an Amending Act providing for the appointment of an Inspector of Buildings, under the control of the Board, who would have co-ordinate powers with the City Building Surveyor.

No. 21.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Boards and Trusts.

WOLLONGONG HARBOUR TRUST.

Wollongong Harbour Trust.—The Trust was established in 1889, under Act 53 Vic. No 19, and is the only one of its kind in New South Wales, all the other ports being directly under the control of the Government. Twelve Commissioners constitute the Trust, three of whom are appointed by the Government; two are elected by the Borough Council of Wollongong; one each is elected by the Councils of Central Illawarra, North Illawarra, and one by the Bulli and Clifton Division of the Electoral District of Illawarra within the area of their population boundaries, when those districts are incorporated; two are elected by the owners of ships registered in Sydney and trading with the port of Wollongong, and two by the colliery owners, merchants, and traders who are liable to pay wharfage rates under the Act. (See also Note, Part I "Shipping" page 28.)

Borrowing Powers.—Under section 90 of the Act, the Commissioners may, with the sanction of the Government, float loans on the security of the tolls, rates, &c. The amount of outstanding loans must not exceed £50,000; the debentures or stock can be negotiated in Sydney or London, and the principal can be made payable in either place. The Act also provides that a Sinking Fund may be established for the purpose of paying off the money borrowed. In addition, under section 94, the Commissioners have power to obtain an overdraft from any bank, the principal of which must not exceed £25,000 at any one time. Up to the 31st December, 1893, no money had been raised by loan or overdraft.

Government Endowment.—Under section 89, the Trust is entitled to receive the sum of £5,000 per annum for the first five years after the date when the Act came into force.

The liabilities under contract were on the 31st December, 1893, £12,637, and the amount of uncollected revenue, £1,127.

No. 22.—IRRIGATION TRUSTS.

Irrigation Trusts.—Trusts have been established, under special Acts, at Wentworth, Hay, and Balranald, but beyond the survey of the areas, which have been vested in Trustees, into lots of from 5 to 40 acres, and other initiatory work, very little progress as to settlement has been made.

Wentworth Irrigation Trust.

This Trust was established under Act 54 Vic. No. 7 (passed September, 1890). The Trustees, who are the members of the Municipal Council of Wentworth for the time being, are empowered to tap the rivers Darling and Murray, and to construct dams and pumping machinery for irrigation purposes and, upon obtaining permission from the Governor-in-Council, to borrow money for these purposes. The area forming this Trust was a portion of the temporary common already vested in the Municipal Council. The Act provides that the Trust may lease portions for any term not exceeding three years or, with the sanction of the Minister, for any term not exceeding thirty years, and may contract to supply water to persons outside as well as inside the irrigation area. Up to September, 1894, no portions had been leased.

Hay Irrigation Trust.

This Trust was established under Act 55 Vic. No. 25 (passed March, 1892), the provisions of which are practically the same as those of the Wentworth Act. The land set apart forms part of the temporary common, and comprises 19,847 acres. Any person (except Asiatics) can select and hold from 5 to 40 acres. The land was only thrown open in December, 1893, and up to 28th January, 1894, 485 acres had been applied for. The expenditure up to that date was nil, as no work in connection with irrigation had been commenced.

Balranald Irrigation Trust.

The provisions of the Act (56 Vic. No. 26), passed June, 1893, establishing this Trust, are almost identical with those of the two preceding Trusts. As in their cases, the land forming this Trust is a portion of the temporary common. The Act limits the area any one person may lease to a maximum of 40 and a minimum of 5 acres, and no person under 18 years of age, nor a married woman, is allowed to hold a lease. Up to the end of 1893, 1,000 acres had been surveyed into lots of 5 to 40 acres, but, as the by-laws framed by the Trustees had not then received the sanction of the Minister, these lots had not been thrown open.

No. 23.—METROPOLITAN FIRE BRIGADE AND VOLUNTEER COMPANIES.—Stations, Plant, &c., 1893.

Metropolitan Fire Brigade Board.—The Board was established in 1884 under Act 47 Vic No. 3, and consists of six members, viz., the chairman, appointed by the Government, and five elected members, one of whom is appointed by the Municipal Council of Sydney, one by the other Municipalities within the proclaimed area, two by the Fire Insurance Companies carrying on business in the Colony, and one by the Volunteer Fire Companies. The elected members retire every two years, but are eligible for re-election. Towards the annual outlay the Government, the Municipalities and the Fire Insurance Companies each contribute one-third. During 1893 the amount received from each was £7,500. The Municipalities contribute pro rata to the assessed annual value of rateable property in their respective districts, and each of the Fire Insurance Companies proportionately to the net risks held on properties situate within the Metropolitan District. Through a weakness in the Act, Sydney Harbour is outside the jurisdiction of the Board.

Ship Fires.—The pilot steamer "Captain Cook" has been fitted by the Marine Board with a steam pump of capacity of 30,000 gallons per hour, for the purpose of dealing with ship fires.

No. 24.—Metropolitan Fire Brigade and Volunteer Companies.

Operations, 1892.

Fire Alarm Telephones.—Telephones connected with the fire stations are placed in fire-alarm boxes in all the important localities of the city and suburbs. The telephonic system at the end of 1892 comprised 62 telephones erected, 7 telephone switchboards, and 87 telephone fire alarms. Most of the volunteer fire stations, theatres, music halls, &c., are also in direct communication with the permanent stations. The various police stations are also in communication through the Central Police Station. Those public offices, wharfs, business firms, &c., that are connected with the General Post Office Exchange, can transmit calls for fires at any hour of the day or night, and arrangements have been made for the watchmen employed by the principal business houses to report to the head-quarters station several times every night.

No. 26.—FIRE RISKS.—Net Amount held within proclaimed area of the Metropolitan District, 1886–93.

Subsidies of Fire Insurance Companies.—Under the 15th Clause of the Fire Brigades Act 1884, the Insurance Companies, holding risks within the proclaimed area under the Fire Brigades Board of Sydney, are required to furnish annually to the Board the amount held at risk (within the proclaimed area) by each Company on the preceding 31st December, less the sums reinsured with other contributing Companies under the Act. The total subsidies for 1893 were £5,500 from 43 Companies; the amount to be contributed by each Company towards the cost of maintenance for the year is established by the Board from the returns supplied by the Companies.

No. 27.—COUNTRY FIRE COMPANIES.

Country Fire Brigades.—Under Clause 20 authority is given to extend the provisions of the Fire Brigades Act to the country districts, but owing to an ambiguous clause in the Statute, the Fire Insurance Companies do not consider themselves called upon to contribute towards their share of the expense of maintenance as defined by the Act. The Boards, however, are entitled to receive subsidies from the Government, and the Municipalities interested. Some of the undermentioned Municipalities have not taken any steps further than having been gazetted.

FIRE INQUESTS.

No. 28.—INQUESTS ON FIRES, 1893.

ests on Fires.—Act 24 Vic. No. 10 provides that "when any property, real or personal, shall be destroyed or fire, the Coroner having or exercising jurisdiction at or in the place where such fire shall have happened, shall, ...ner it a fit case for so doing, make an inquisition into the cause and origin of such fire" Jurors and witnesses are ...oned, and the mode of procedure is the same as in inquests in cases of deaths. The Coroner can, if the jury find that ...erson has wilfully set fire to property, exercise the same authority as in the cases of persons charged with murder or ...aughter. There is a Coroner and a Deputy Coroner for Sydney, and 131 Coroners for Country Districts, as well as two ...s Colony generally. No. 29.—DEFENCE FORCE. Regular Military Force, 1893.

Imperial Troops. New South Wales was garrisoned with British troops from the time of its foundation as a Colony till 1870, when they were withdrawn. In the succeeding year Act 34 Vic. No. 19, Military and Naval Forces Regulation Act, was passed, having for its object the establishment of a local permanent force. Under its authority the regulation and discipline of the regular forces are administered.

First Volunteer Force. The first volunteer force was enrolled in 1854, under Act of Council 18 Vic. No. 8, which was repealed in 1867 in favour of the Volunteer Force Regulation Act, 31 Vic. No. 5 of that year. Under its provisions the forces were reorganised. One of the clauses of the Act provided for the issue of Volunteer Land Orders, which part was repealed under Act 41 Vic. No. 1 in 1878. The forces were again reorganised on the year last mentioned, and a reserve added to which of reserves was attached. The Rifle Reserve companies, were however, disbanded at the end of 1890 and the Civilian Rifle Clubs at present existing are not considered as being in any sense military forces although some members would probably prove useful as sharpshooters under the direction of regular officers in any case of emergency.

Defence Forces. Commencing with the year 1895 the Military and Naval Forces of the Colony will consist of two classes, the Permanent and the Partially paid. The Scottish Volunteer Corps will from that date form the 5th Regiment.

Military Secretary's Office. In January, 1892 a Military Secretary's Office was established the head of which acts as the medium of communication between the military authorities and the Government, through the Principal Under-Secretary. The staff consists of the Secretary (Colonel), 1 chief clerk, 1 examiner of accounts, 2 clerks, and 1 messenger.

Defence of King George's Sound (Western Australia).—New South Wales, together with the colonies of Victoria, Queensland, and South Australia, entered into a contract 11th March, 1892 with the colony of Western Australia to contribute to the cost of defence of King George's Sound. The agreement provides that one-fourth of the total expense of all defences by Western Australia, and three-fourths by the other colonies named, the proportion to be paid by each colony to be calculated on the several populations. Western Australia provides the garrison and has general executive direction.

Defence of Thursday Island (Queensland).—A similar agreement was made, 1st January, 1892, between New South Wales and the colonies of Queensland, Victoria, South Australia, and Western Australia, for the defence of Thursday Island; this contract the colonies named contribute towards the expense of it according to the population of each.

Federal Defence.—During October 1891 an International Military Conference was held in Sydney for the purpose of considering and reporting upon a scheme of Federal Defence. A representative from each of the Australasian colonies and Western Australia and Tasmania was present. The points considered and reported upon were—(1) A general scheme of defence which should be applicable, on federal basis, to the whole of the Australasian colonies and Tasmania, (2) the force allotment of troops for each colony, (3) a federal organization applicable to the allotment proposed, (4) to consider the question of a Military Board which shall provide the whole of the Australasian and Tasmanian military forces on a uniform basis, as regards military service, discipline, and pay, (5) the question of the appointment of a representative to start together to promote the efficiency of the defences of the colonies. The Commission after some days' deliberation adopted the scheme, and the report thereon will be forwarded to the Governments concerned.

No. 35.—IMPERIAL WAR VESSELS on Australian Station, 1893.

The Imperial Defence Act.—This Act (51 and 52 Vic., chapter 32), assented to August, 1888, ratified the agreement between the Australasian and Imperial Governments, and provides for the issue of money from the Consolidated Fund for that purpose.

Australasian Agreement.—This agreement provides for the equipping, manning, and maintaining, at the joint cost of the Imperial and Colonial Funds, a naval force, consisting of five cruisers and two torpedo gunboats, which shall have the same status as H.M. ships of war. The officers and men are changed triennially, and the limits where they are to be employed in times of peace or war is fixed within the limits of the Australian Station. It is provided that no reduction shall be made of the Imperial squadron in consequence of the equipment of this naval force. The Australasian Colonies contribute 5 per cent. on the cost of these vessels—not to exceed £35,000 per annum—and the actual charge for their maintenance. In the event of loss the Imperial Government has to replace the same. The agreement is for ten years, and only terminable then, provided notice is given at the end of the eighth year. Afterwards the agreement can be terminated by giving two years' notice. The vessels will revert to the Imperial Government on the termination of the agreement. The New South Wales Government ratified the agreement under the Australasian Naval Force Act of 1887 (51 Vic. No. 22).

Boundaries of Australian Naval Station.—These are:—From 95° E. long. by the parallel of 10° S. lat. to 130° E. long.; thence north to 12° N. lat., and along that parallel to 160° W. long., and on the south by the Antarctic Circle, including the numerous groups of islands situated within those limits.

Garden Island.—Garden Island (6a. 3r. 21 p.) was dedicated for the purpose of a Naval Depôt, 1865–6. The works on the Island and elsewhere in connection with the Naval Station, Port Jackson, are being carried out at the expense of the Colony, in consideration of which the Imperial authorities agreed to make Sydney the head-quarters of the fleet, and also to cede to the New South Wales Government certain land and buildings owned by them within the Colony.

In addition to the armament mentioned in the table, each of the cruisers carries four, and each of the torpedo boats five, torpedo tubes.

No. 36.—PARLIAMENTS.

Constitution Act. "An Act to confer a Constitution on New South Wales" (Imperial Act 18 and 19 Vict. ch. 54) was passed on 30th July, 1855, and was amended in 1884 (47 Vict. No. 9). The Legislative Council and Assembly correspond, as far as is practicable, with the two Houses of the Imperial Parliament.

Legislative Council. No fewer than 21 members of the Legislative Council (Section 9 of the Constitution Act, as shewn in Table 1 hereof) may be appointed on 1st October, 1894, the number for members was at first five. They all receive £300 per annum and are entitled to a railway pass for all New South Wales railways. At least the appointment of a member forfeits his seat by absence from two consecutive Sessions without leave, becoming bankrupt, and other causes, and he can resign at any time. One-fourth of the members go to the Old Country every eighth year. The Governor, with the consent of the Executive Council, may remove him and appoint another in his place. He can take part in the debates, but cannot vote.

Legislative Assembly. The first Parliament under the Constitution Act met on 22nd May, 1856. The duration of Parliaments (unless previously prorogued) was originally fixed at 5 years, but in 1874 an Act was passed establishing triennial Parliaments. In September 1880, an Act was assented to, allowing each member (not holding office as Minister, Chairman of Committees) the annual sum of £300 per annum as reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of Parliamentary duties. Members also receive passes available for all New South Wales railways. Twenty Members (of the Speaker, who is elected by the Members) constitute a quorum.

Executive Council. The Executive Council is composed of the Governor and the members of the Cabinet. Its meetings are convened formally by the Governor, and it cannot discharge any function unless so summoned, and unless at least three members, besides the Governor or presiding member, are present to form a quorum.

Cabinet. The Schedule of the Constitution Act Amendment Act (47 Vict. No. 7) enumerates the holders of the following offices of profit under the Crown as being the only persons holding any such office who shall be capable of being chosen Members of the Assembly:—

	Salary. £		Salary. £		Salary. £
Colonial Secretary	2,000	Secretary for Lands ..	1,500	Minister of Public Instruction	1,500
Colonial Treasurer	1,500	Secretary for Public Works	1,500	Secretary for Mines	1,500
Attorney-General	2,000	Minister of Justice ..	1,500	Postmaster-General	1,500

The salaries of the Colonial Secretary, Colonial Treasurer and Attorney-General are fixed by the Constitution Act, the remainder have to be passed under the Annual Appropriation Bill. Those latter, in accordance with the Act of 13 per cent. made on all Civil Servants' salaries above £200, were reduced for 1893-4 to £1,670. The remaining members of the Cabinet voluntarily made similar reductions on the salaries attached to their offices by the Constitution Act. The Cabinet of December 1894 (as hereinbefore stated) above are all Members of the Assembly, generally includes a tenth member having a seat in the Legislative Council, who is appointed Vice-President and Representative of the Government in that Chamber but who holds no portfolio.

Successive Presidents of the Legislative Council and Speakers of the Legislative Assembly. From the table it there have been seven of the former, who receive their appointment from the Governor, and eight Members of the Assembly, who have been elected to the Speaker's Chair. The salaries voted for 1893 for these were £1,500 and £1,670 respectively.

Chairmen of Committees. The Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly each elects one of its members Chairmen of Committees, the salaries for 1893 being £470 and £740 respectively.

No. 37.—PARLIAMENT.—Public Acts passed by the Fifteenth Parliament.

Public Bills.

How initiated.—The Constitution Act provides that all money Bills must be introduced in the Lower House only. All other public Bills can be initiated in either Chamber by a motion for leave to bring in the Bill, or by a resolution agreed to from a Committee of the Whole, and adopted by the House, specifying its intended title.

1st Reading.—After leave has been obtained to bring in a Bill, the question "That this Bill be now read a first time" is put and decided without amendment or debate. If decided in the affirmative, the Bill is printed, and the second reading made an order of the day for a future sitting.

2nd Reading.—On the question for the second reading, amendments may be moved, and it may be postponed, discharged, or referred to a Select Committee.

In Committee.—After the second reading the House resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the Bill in detail. When the Committee's report is adopted, a future date is fixed for the third reading without notice or debate.

3rd Reading.—On the third reading the Bill may be recommitted or postponed.

Passing.—After passing the third reading the Bill is transmitted to the other House for its concurrence.

Conference.—In the event of disagreement a conference between the two Houses may be arranged.

Royal Assent.—The Governor acts as Viceroy to give the Royal Assent to, or to veto, Acts passed by the Legislature.

Reserved Bills.—There are eight classes of Bills which the Governor must reserve for the special consideration of the Sovereign, amongst which are Divorce Bills, Bills affecting the currency, and Bills conflicting with Imperial Treaty obligations.

Enrolment.—After being assented to, the Bill is numbered immediately before, and the date added next after, the title, a new series of numbers commences with each year of the Sovereign's reign, which begins with the Anniversary of Accession Day. The Act is then transmitted by the Clerk of Parliament to the Registrar-General, and enrolled and recorded by him within ten days from the day on which the same shall become law, as provided by the Deeds Registration Act (7 Vic. No. 16.)

Bills for Public Purposes.—A Bill for the paving, lighting, draining, or otherwise improving any town or district, or for supplying the same with water, is deemed a Public Bill.

No. 38—PARLIAMENT.—Private Acts passed by the Fifteenth Parliament.

Private Bills may be initiated in either Chamber. Notice of intention to apply for a private Bill must be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the Gazette, and at least one Sydney newspaper and one or more newspapers published in or nearest the District affected by the Bill. In these notices the general objects of the Bill must be stated. Before a private Bill can be read a first time, £25 must be paid to the Consolidated Revenue, and whenever the expenses necessary to such Bill exceed that amount, a further payment of £25 is required. The Bill having been read a first time, is referred to a Select Committee, who may hear counsel, and if they report in its favour, it is proceeded with as in the case of a Public Bill.

Private Acts not numbered.—Private Acts are not numbered. The order shown is alphabetical, and not chronological.

No. 39—GENERAL ELECTION, 1894.—Electorates, Number of Electors, Votes Recorded.

The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893, 56 Vic. No. 38, as amended by 57 Vic. No. 24.—Under the authority of the principal Act three Commissioners were appointed to divide the Colony into 125 single Electorates—instead of as previously 74 Electorates returning 141 members—giving to each as nearly as practicable an equal number of Electors. The Districts were subdivided into 421 Divisions, and the new Electoral Rolls, issued February, 1894, showed the number of Electors in the Colony to be 287,013—an average of 2,296 to each Electorate. The voting power of the Metropolis and Suburbs combined was 34·3 % as against 65·7 % that of the Country Districts. Every man being a natural-born or naturalised subject of or above the age of 21 years, who is of sound mind, and not on full pay in the Military, Naval, or Police Service, nor in receipt of public charity, nor undergoing imprisonment, is entitled to receive an "Elector's Right," provided that he has resided or had his principal place of abode in N.S.W. for a continuous period of one year. The "Rights" issued are available till 31st December, 1896, and provision is made for the issue of new "Rights" on change of residence or in case of loss. Under the Act each Elector, being entitled to vote for one, and only one, candidate at any election, the principle involved is popularly known as "One man one vote."

No. 48.—CONSOLIDATION of the Statute Law.

Appointment of Commissioners.—In October, 1878, the Cabinet approved of a Minute of the Minister for Public [illegible] the arrangement, in a clear, logical form, of the substance of existing enactments, both Colonial and Imperial, in force in New South Wales, such consolidation not to involve any alteration of the law, and that the consolidation should be carried out by a Royal Commission, consisting of the Chief Justice, President of the Judges of the Supreme and District Courts, the President of the Land Appeals Court, the Chairman of the Metropolitan Police Court Bench, the Crown Solicitor, the Parliamentary Draftsman, and representative members of both branches of the legal profession, all of whom are to give their services gratuitously. The Commission having been appointed, entrusted the work contemplated to it to eight sub-committees, seven of which are presided over by Judges of the Supreme Court, with a District Court Judge as Vice-Chairman, while the President of the Land Court presides over the remaining committee. A revising committee has also been appointed, consisting of two members of each sub-committee. A draftsman has been appointed to each committee, and these draftsmen are proceeding with the work. The subjects to be dealt with are as follow:—

No. 43.—FISHERIES.—Fishing Licenses, &c., 1893.

The Fisheries Act, 1881 (44 Vic. No. 26), which repealed Acts 28 Vic. No. 10, 31 Vic. No. 10, and 31 Vic. No. 20, was the first formal attempt to legislate with the view of protecting the natural supplies of fish (including oysters, lobsters, and prawns) and to regulate and control their capture. This Act, as amended May, 1893 (46 Vic. No. 25), regulates the description and mesh of nets that may be used, provides for close seasons, the issue of licenses, imposition of penalties, etc. Its administration is entrusted to five Commissioners, appointed by the Governor-in-Council, whose term of office is five years, and whose jurisdiction extends over the entire Colony. The fisheries on the seaboard are distributed by the Act into three divisions—the Home, the Northern, and the Southern. These are placed under the supervision of inspectors and assistant inspectors.

The Inland Waters Fisheries Act, 1887 (51 Vic. No. 26), regulates, in a similar manner, the protection and capture of fish in rivers and creeks situated beyond the influence of tides, as well as in fresh-water lakes, lagoons, and ponds.

Port Hacking.—A short Act was passed August, 1886 (50 Vic. No. 6), to prohibit net-fishing in the waters of Port Hacking.

No. 44.—FISHERIES.—Bags of Oysters Obtained, 1893.

Oyster Fisheries Act, 1884 (48 Vic. No. 6). Under this Act the Commissioners grant two descriptions of leases—(1) long leases of shore and beds of tidal waters of an area not exceeding 25 acres. The term must not exceed 30 years, or be less than 14 years. The rental is 5s. per acre for the first four years, and £1 per acre for the remainder of the term; (2) annual leases of any portion of the shore of a tidal water (not exempted or created a public oyster reserve under the Act). The rental is fixed at £1 for every 100 yards or portion thereof. During 1893, 26 applications for leases of areas of from 100 to 1,000 yards, representing a total area of 6,400 yards, were made; the deposits paid on these applications amounted to £24. The rentals received from leased areas for 1893 was £1,607.

* Highest and lowest temperature.

Thermometers.—The thermometers are exposed in a shed 11 feet square, of which the sides are 5 feet 6 inches high, and enclosed to within 18 inches of the ground with open lattice-work. The roof is conical, rises to 13 feet above the ground, and is covered with louvres close enough to keep out rain. Repeated experiments have been made to determine the relation between temperature in this shed and that shown by a swing thermometer, both night and day, with the result that there is no difference. It is, therefore, assumed that the shade obtained is a satisfactory one.

Earth Thermometers.—The earth thermometers are respectively 11 ft., 6 ft., 3 ft. 6 in., and 1 ft. 1 in. long. One foot of each is devoted to the scale, and is above the surface of the ground. The bulbs are, therefore, 10 ft., 5 ft., 2 ft. 6 in., and 1 in. below the surface of the soil. The stems are placed vertically, and are 7 inches apart; and a small cover with glass front protects the scales from the weather, and keeps the sun from shining directly on to the ground above the bulb, which is buried only 1 inch. There is a wooden case, 3 inches square, round the stem of each thermometer.

Humidity.—The humidity is obtained from the wet and dry bulb readings by means of a set of curves, which show the amount by inspection. These curves have been calculated from the Greenwich Dew Point Factors. The humidity thus obtained agrees with that given by Glaisher's tables.

Rain-gauge.—The rain-gauge is round, 8 inches in diameter, and with rim 15 inches above ground. The pluviometer results are from a gauge of the same size, 0 ft. above ground, and recording on the same sheet as the anemometer. Two similar gauges, placed on the ground 6 ft. apart, are always used; they differ very little, and not always the same way; the larger record is always taken. The amount of dew is found from the rain-gauge. Smaller quantities than the rain-gauge will show are lost

NOTE.—The total rainfall given for each month in Table No. 48 is from the ordinary rain-gauge. The records of the pluviometer are affected by the force of the wind and some loss by friction in the recording machine; the total, therefore, is always less than that shown by the rain-gauge. The total rainfall for 1893 according to Table No. 48 was 49·561 inches, while in the above table it appears as 44·202 inches.
